BJP suspends its Telangana MLA over hate speech

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Hyderabad

THE BJP on Tuesday suspended Telangana MLA T Raja Singh after he was arrested over alleged controversial remarks he made against the Prophet.

Singh's arrest was over a video he made criticising stand-up comedian Munawar Faruqui, who had recently performed in Hyderabad. In the video, he can be seen making comments aimed at the Prophet.

He was booked on charges of promoting enmity between groups and hurting religious sentiments of a community. However, hours after his arrest, Singh was released after a court ordered the police to do so citing procedural lapses in arresting him.

Earlier, the BJP's central disciplinary committee, in a notice sent to Singh, said, "You have views contrary to the party's position, which is in clear violation of the Constitution of the BJP."

ED tracks Delhi liquor 'kickback' trail

SHAHID FARIDI @ New Delhi

IN what could be a decisive blow to the AAP government in the alleged liquor scam, the Enforcement Directorate's preliminary enquiries to track the flow of cash have led an elaborate regime of discounts, rebates and credit coupons. This discount regime introduced by the Kejriwal government generated huge amounts of cash, part of which, the agency suspects, could have gone back to the AAP leaders.

Sources told this paper that the state government amended Rule 53 of the Delhi Excise Rules 2010 to bring in the discount regime. This amendment allowed wholesalers to offer unlimited discounts to the retailers. The ED is probing whether part of this discount was returned by the retailers to the wholesalers to be paid as kickback to the AAP leaders. The old excise rules expressly prohibited discounts and rebates. Rule 53, sub-rule 1 of the Delhi Excise Rules 2010 said: "The licensee shall neither give concession, rebate, or discount on the price of liquor nor shall give liquor as a gift."

The Kejriwal government deleted this clause through an amendment, which was published in a gazette notification dated May 31, 2021. The amendment in Rule 53 said, "Sub-rule (1) shall be omitted." The intention behind deletion of Sub-rule 1 of Rule 53 of the Delhi Excise Rules and the consequences of the same is also the focus of ED investigation.

Sources said the ED has found out that two large wholesalers, who are considered close to sections of Delhi's AAP leaders, have been extending huge discounts, rebates and other incentives to a large number of retailers. The retailers returned part of these discounts in cash to the wholesalers. The ED is now trying to establish that this payback by retailers was used to pay the AAP leadership for facilitating the discount regime in particular, and bringing in a policy favouring wholesalers in general.

Investigators also suspect that the state government turned a blind eye to the violation of the new excise policy where wholesalers got into retailing and manufacturers could be part of the plot to allow generation of cash.

The ushering in of the discount regime without any cap had led to some bidders asking the state government about its quantum. One bidder asked in writing if a wholesaler can offer 100 per cent

Adani acquires 29.2% in NDTV; to go for 26% more

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

THE Gautam Adani-promoted Adani Group is indirectly acquiring a 29.18% stake in New Delhi Television Ltd (NDTV). The group will then launch an open offer for another 26% stake worth ₹493 crore.

AMG Media Networks Limited (AMNL), an Adani Group firm, first bought Vishvapradhan Commercial Pvt Ltd (VCPL) for ₹114 crore. VCPL, which in the past was linked to rival billionaire Mukesh Ambani, owns warrants of NDTV shareholder RRRPH — owned by Radhika and Pranoy Roy — and on Tuesday exercised its rights to convert those warrants into shares amounting to 99.5% of RRRPH. Such an acquisition will result in VCPL acquiring control of RRRPH, which holds 29.18% stake in NDTV. Then three firms — VCPL, AMG Media Networks and Adani Enterprises Ltd — will launch an open offer to acquire up to 26% of the voting share capital at NDTV. They have offered a price of ₹294 per share for the acquisition of up to 1,67,62,530 fully paid-up equity shares of NDTV.

NDTV on Monday had dismissed the acquisition buzz. On Tuesday, however, it said in a regulatory filing that without any discussion with it or its founder-promoters, a notice was served upon it by VCPL, stating it (VCPL) has exercised its rights to acquire 99.5% control of RRRPH Holding Pvt Ltd, which owns 29.18% of NDTV. PoP Ganesha idol makers to face cases: BBMP

As Ganesha festival nears, an artist gives finishing touches to an idol at Pottery Town in Bengaluru on Tuesday | VINOD KUMAR T

A team of Palike, police & Bescom officials will check for banned items

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

SENDING a strong message that BBMP will be uncompromising about pollution, BBMP Chief Commissioner Tushar Girinath said that criminal cases will be filed against persons for making Ganesha idols using plaster of Paris (PoP).

With Ganesha festival approaching, Girinath said that zonal officers have been informed that PoP idols are banned, only eco-friendly ones are allowed. "A team comprising BBMP, police and Bescom officials should visit places to check for banned items like PoP, thermocol, and harmful chemicals. If shops or manufacturing units are found violating the rules, officials will issue notice, and for PoP Ganesha idols, cases will also be filed against those using such materials," the Palike chief said.

Idols makers should use clay which will be promoted, the commissioner said. To avoid pollution in lakes, BBMP officials will make arrangements for Kalyani.

Zonal commissioners have been given standing instructions to appoint nodal officers in 63 sub-divisions for the festival, he said, adding that they will monitor permissions, immersions, and other preparations.

Meanwhile, the state government has also issued a circular directing that all city corporations and municipalities must ensure that this year's Ganesha festival is celebrated in an eco-friendly manner. People and communities which want to keep idols and pandals have to get NOCs from authorities concerned. Corporations and municipalities must also ensure that immersions are done as per protocol. Adequate immersion tanks should be deployed to avoid traffic, civic officials told.

Use Shivananda steel flyover from August 30

ENS @ Bengaluru

THE much-awaited Shivananda steel bridge project will be completed and thrown open for public on August 30, said BBMP Chief Engineer Lokesh M. The steel bridge project was supposed to be opened for public by August 15.

However, due to delay in ramp and culvert work, the opening was deferred. The Palike had partially opened one stretch of the flyover to ease traffic. Some commuters, mostly motorists, who took the stretch, complained of bumpy rides to which the Palike engineers said that when the work is completed, there will be no issues.

"Uneven surfaces will be levelled before the bridge is opened. The BBMP has saved around ₹40 crore by dropping the plan for new land acquisition. The project plan was altered and designed as per the Indian Road Congress standards," said Lokesh.

The project began in 2017 at an estimated cost of ₹15 crore, and now after completion, the cost stands at ₹39 crore. The project faced a hurdle as residents filed a PIL. The BBMP got clearance from Supreme Court. The pandemic was one of the reasons for delay, and it rained over the past few months. Once the flyover is opened, motorist from Seshadripuram, Chalkya Circle, Anand Rao Circle can expect a smooth ride.

Deputy Commissioner, Land Acquisition, BDA, Dr A Soujanya told TNIE, "Till now, 418 people have staked claim for certificates. We have handed over 86 certificates to the doorsteps of those who have handed over land. Many of them have multiple claimants within the family for ownerships. Some are genuine civil disputes but many are frivolous too."

Priority would be given to entitlement certificate holders when the process of allotment of sites begins in the Layout, she stressed. "As compensation, those who lost land get 9,583 square feet of developed land for every acre of land surrendered (40 per cent). Since land value would rise in the future, public prefer to take land compensation rather than cash," the DC added.

Soujanya said that compensation awards have been framed for 2,562 acres of land while the BDA has taken possession of 2,282 acres.

BDA Commissioner Rajesh Gowda said a detailed and thorough process of verification has been undertaken before certificates are issued. "The name of the land serial number; village, extent of land handed over; and also the quantum of developed land that would be given in future is specified in the entitlement certificate," he said.

Behind bird counting, mission to save H'ghatta

BOSKY KHANNA @ Bengaluru

TO protect the few grasslands in and around Bengaluru, birders, activists, citizens, among others will be gathering at Hessarghatta for bird counting on Sunday.

The exercise is also aimed at mounting pressure on the government to recognise the importance of the region, and ensure that it is declared as a grassland.

In January 2021, the High Court had quashed the government's decision not to declare it as a grassland. The then Chief Minister BS Yediyurappa had rejected the proposal, tabled by the forest and animal and veterinary sciences departments for protection, to declare the area spread across 356 acres as a grassland.

Members from groups like Bird Count India, BNG Birds and Bombay Natural History Society have also shown interest to participate. According to the e-bird report, as on August 17, 275 birds were counted, including rare and migratory birds like Slender Billed Gull, Harriers, European Rollers and Orphean Warblers.

"The exercise will draw the attention of people and the government regarding the protection of the area. This is one of the last remaining lung spaces, and it needs to be protected. There are seven hotspots in Hessarghatta and each is unique for bird-sighting. The area is unique as water birds, migratory and grassland bird species are also sighted," said noted ornithologist S Subramanya.

Naturalist Ulhas Anand said that since September 5 in the scheduled state wildlife board meeting, hopefully a check list is presented before the government for consideration and declaration.

Number of people showing interest, including children are rising, since there is no registration for the event.

Forest department officials added that the area faces constant threat of cattle grazing, stray dog menace, crowd rush, high vehicular movement and now real estate mafia.

Daily Starscope

24th August: Back in the 1960s, a Czech scientist by the name of Jonas did a lot of work looking at fertility and the stars. His work was taken up in the early 1970s but then largely disappeared.

Now British scientist Pat Harris has made further investigations of this fascinating area and found that the generous planet Jupiter assists all women hoping to have children.

ARIES (Mar 21 - Apr. 20)

Several important planets are altering their positions, directing your attention away from old concerns to new ambitions. Happily, family gatherings will be on the cards. At the very least you need to ask relations what they're feeling and what they want.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21)

One particular tier association should now have reached a turning-point. Even if the consequences was a complete break, you can be assured that in the long run all was for the very best. Even an old rejection, or failure, may turn out to have saved you for something better.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21)

As from today, financial planning is due to achieve a much greater priority in your daily affairs. You'll be signing papers, making deals, negotiating contracts and summoning family conferences. But, however practical the steps you're taking, your emotional commitment will be beyond question.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23)

You can be the most tolerant of people—nobody would deny that. But you're not one to suffer fools or put up with incompetence, especially not at work. However, it may be your own overweening ambition or impatient nature which causes minor problems today. Humility pays!

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23)

You are moving into a new phase which could last for another two weeks. You may be wise to keep certain information to yourself, regarding other people being unfit to know what you have in mind. You have to steer clear of those who jump to conclusions—the wrong conclusions!

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23)

The Moon adjusts its position in the early hours, raising the energy level just slightly. Only night-owls, shift-workers and early-risers will notice the change of mood that takes place then, but all of you will be happier by midday. Or, at least, you'll know that a difficulty can be satisfactorily dealt with.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23)

There is certainly no reason for you to feel inadequate or guilty. The trouble is that the Moon tends to evoke in you some mysterious feeling that you have done something you shouldn't have, even when you haven't! Perhaps you've just got a guilty conscience!

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22)

It's a time for discussions, meetings and negotiations, mainly because you have to try and balance the prevailing emotional atmosphere. In view of current uncertainties, one thing we can be definite about is that decisions reached now will be overturned within no more than a few days.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 22)

It certainly is difficult to keep the simplest of things in perspective. The danger at the present time is that you're likely to blow relatively trivial molehills up into rather troublesome mountains. Don't exaggerate your weaknesses or over-estimate your strengths.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 23 - Jan. 20)

Partners and rivals shouldn't be too complacent. You have one or two tricks up your sleeve and it will be a foolish person who attempts to pull the wool over your eyes. You can save your trump cards until the weekend—and, even then, you should probably keep something in reserve.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19)

You're never quite sure what is going to happen next. It may be that what is being discussed or arranged will lead to welcome developments at work or in more personal areas, but your needs are so utterly individual, unique even, that they are impossible to satisfy.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20)

It's because you're a Piscean that you are quite happy to let partners take the strain. Sit back and realise that others may cope with certain hassles and responsibilities more effectively than you. Your skills lie in cheering up people who are stressed out, wound up or just generally annoyed!

Rare procedure rids woman of tumour

Surgeons from city-based hospital perform rare awake craniotomy to remove brain tumour

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

DOCTORS at city-based Sagar Apollo Hospital gave a fresh lease of life to a 27-year-old woman with a rare awake craniotomy surgery, where they removed a brain tumour measuring 4cm from her eloquent cortex (speech area) at left posterior temporal lobe of the brain.

She was operated when awake and fully conscious, although medicines were given to ensure that she doesn't feel any pain.

A surgical team led by Dr. Murali Mohan S, senior consultant neurosurgeon and head of neurosciences, Sagar Hospitals, and anaesthesia team led by Dr Gayathri P, senior consultant neuro anesthesiologist and neuro intensivist, performed the surgery.

Dr Mohan said since the surgery was done at the eloquent cortex, they had to ensure that her speech and memory were not affected, so she was kept awake by playing music of her choice, constantly communicating with her, and asking her to do some maths all through the surgery.

"While brain tumour surgeries usually take seven hours, this surgery was completed in 3.5 hours, as it is not easy to keep the patient awake for long while performing such surgeries. She could walk within two hours after the surgery, which was done on Friday. She was discharged on Monday and advised to go back to work after a week," he said.

Preethi (name changed), the only daughter of aged parents residing in Udupi, lived alone in Bengaluru. Though she was diagnosed with brain tumour seven years ago, she kept deferring the surgery, fearing she would lose her speech or memory. While she suffered repeated seizures due to the tumour, and panic attacks due to fear of living with it, she visited a number of doctors to check if the surgery could be done without affecting her speech or memory, before she contacted Dr Mohan.

HC accepts marriage between victim, accused, quashes POCSO charges

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE @Bengaluru

ACCEPTING a settlement between the victim and accused on account of marriage, the Karnataka High Court terminated criminal proceedings pending against the accused before the Bengaluru Rural Additional District and Sessions Court, under the provisions of IPC and Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act.

"In the light of marriage between the victim and accused, the marriage being registered, a certificate being issued in accordance with law depicting the couple to be a legally wedded husband and wife, a girl child being born from wedlock to which a birth certificate is issued... In such cases, the prosecution can hardly prove the guilt against the petitioner-accused," said Justice M Nagaprasanna, while disposing of a petition filed by a 23-year-old accused, through his advocate K G Aiyappa.

The victim deposed before the sessions court that the physical relationship between her and the accused was consensual, and at that time, she was 17 years old and the petitioner was aged 20. On March 5, 2020, after about a year of the alleged incident, she attained the age of 18. She also filed an affidavit that she and the accused were in love. After this evidence, the accused was granted bail, after being in judicial custody for more than 18 months. On November 9, 2020, the accused and victim got married.

The court said if the victim turns hostile in the trial and petitioner gets acquitted of all offences, the sword of crime would have torn the soul of the accused. It is not the end result that is painful or otherwise, but the process in the criminal justice system that generates such pain. In the teeth of these facts, if the court would shut its doors on the couple who are married and bringing up the child, the proceedings would result in miscarriage of justice, the court observed, referring to opposition by the government advocate to close proceedings. Citing a plethora of judgments which have quashed proceedings on account of marriage between the victim and accused, Justice Nagaprasanna said, "I deem it appropriate to follow those judgments and quash the proceedings."

A 49-year-old man, well-known for his snake rescuing skills in Nelamangala, died after being bitten by a venomous snake near Dabaspet, on the outskirts of Bengaluru.

The deceased is identified as Lokesh M B, popularly known as Snake Loka. He also ran an eatery called 'Paramathma', since he was a fan of late actor Puneeth Rajkumar.

Reportedly, the incident occurred when he was handling a common cobra, which he had captured inside a house after being alerted by a farmer on Monday evening. The snake reportedly bit him twice between the thumb and the index finger, before he could release it into a nearby forest. Soon after the incident, he was rushed to a hospital in the vicinity. According to sources, by the time he could reach there, the venom had already started spreading through the body. He was then taken to a larger hospital in Yeshwantpur, where he succumbed on Monday night.

ASTROLOGER ON THE RUN AFTER RAPING WOMAN

BENGALURU: KR Puram police registered a case of rape against a self-proclaimed astrologer, after he demanded sexual favours from a woman to solve her problems. The accused, Anand Murthy (52), a resident of Avalahalli, was running an ashram. Police said that a month ago, the woman, who worked with a private company, had approached Murthy for solutions to her problems. Murthy claimed he was worshipping a goddess who would solve everything. He took advantage of her situation and demanded sexual favours from her. Meanwhile, he forced her to drink juice laced with drugs, and raped her. Murthy, who had video recorded the assault, shared the video of the victim with her fiancée and started blackmailing her. Based on a complaint, police registered an FIR and are on the lookout for the accused who escaped from the ashram when he heard that the woman had approached police. ENS

Omicron variants dominate caseload

Bengaluru: At a time when Karnataka, especially Bengaluru, is seeing a surge in Covid cases, the health department has received genomic sequencing reports of 1,459 more RT-PCR samples (CT levels less than 25) sent this month till August 16.

INSACOG has confirmed the sub-lineages of Omicron variant in 1,351 samples, and ETA/kappa/pango variants of Covid in 108 samples. State Health Commissioner D Randeep said around 85 pc samples were from Bengaluru. He said that 5 pc to 10 per cent of positive cases are considered for genomic sequencing as the caseload is higher in Bengaluru. "We can't call the rise in cases as the fourth wave yet, as there is no exponential rise in cases like in the second and third waves," Randeep said.

MADIKERI CHALO RALLY CALLED OFF, SAYS SIDDU

'Govt out to tarnish my image, spread misinformation about me'

A file photo of Congress leader Siddaramaiah's car gheraoed by BJP workers. This started the present face-off between both the parties

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Bengaluru

CONGRESS Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah on Tuesday said his party will not hold the Madikeri Chalo rally on August 26 as the Kodagu district administration is imposing prohibitory orders from 6 am on Wednesday till 6 pm on August 27. The district administration took the decision as Congress was planning the protest against the egg attack on Siddaramaiah, while BJP too had planned another rally on the same day.

Siddaramaiah said, "I will not violate the law. The protest is a party programme. I have decided to postpone it after discussions with party leaders."

On the controversy over him visiting a temple after eating chicken, he said, "I didn't go to the temple after eating meat in Kodagu. I ate rice roti and bamboo shoots curry that day. It was also confirmed by former MLC Veena Achaiah. For the sake of argument, I had said what was the problem if I ate chicken."

He said, "I had gone to Kodagu to see the flood damage. In Madikeri, a retaining wall was constructed recently at a cost of Rs 7.5 crore. But now it is falling apart. To ensure that it does not collapse, sandbags have been placed to support it. I was told that when Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai visited Kodagu, he was prevented by the local MLA from seeing the retaining wall. This is because the MLAs and contractors have looted money and done poor work. They protested and threw eggs so that I wouldn't see the wall. When my car was being attacked the police were just standing there and watching. Instead of taking action against the attackers, they lathi-charged Congress supporters. The protesters had wrapped stones in cloth and hit my car, while some threw eggs. Clearly these protests were sponsored by the state administration."

Siddaramaiah said, "Sam-path, who threw the eggs, is an RSS and BJP follower. After he was arrested, MLA Appachu Ranjan got him released from the police station. Later, BJP claimed that he is a Congress worker. There are photographs of Appachu Ranjan with Sam-path. They deliberately lied that he was a supporter of Congress leader Jivijaya. But Jivijaya has clarified that he does not know Sam-path."

He said, "The government is out to tarnish my image and spread misinformation about me. After the attack on my car, Bopaiah challenged me saying, 'Come to Kodagu and see'. Are we in a free India? How can they challenge the Leader of the Opposition like this?"

Sam-path, who threw the eggs, is an RSS and BJP follower. After he was arrested, MLA Appachu Ranjan got him released from the police station. Later, BJP claimed that he is a Congress worker

Three-day prohibitory orders clamped on Kodagu

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ Madikeri

THE Kodagu administration has imposed prohibitory orders under Section 144 of the CrPC in the entire district for three days from 6 am on Wednesday till Saturday to prevent the proposed political rallies by Congress and BJP.

The Opposition Congress has dropped its plans to hold 'Madikeri Chalo' and a protest in front of the superintendent of police office on Friday. The agitation was planned against the egg attack on CLP leader Siddaramaiah during his recent visit to the district. But BJP is organising an awareness rally against Tipu Sultan at Gandhi Maidan on the same day.

Kodagu Deputy Commissioner Dr BC Sateesha said the prohibitory orders were imposed as the two events posed a risk to communal harmony in the district. No gatherings -- political, public or private -- can take place during these three days. Also, the display of political party flags and black flags, display of black clothes, holding protests, bursting of crackers and gatherings of more than five people have been banned. However, weddings and other private ceremonies that are already scheduled have been exempted. Also, the sale of liquor has been banned for three days.

Madikeri MLA Appachu Ranjan said, "The administration should give us permission to hold the awareness rally." Appachu Ranjan and Virajpet MLA KG Bopai-ah also held meetings with party leaders on Tuesday over the rally.

Former chief minister B S Yediyurappa flags off the Veer Savarkar Ratha Yatra in Mysuru on Tuesday | UDAYSANKAR S

Days after elevation in BJP, BSY flags off Savarkar yatra

K SHIVA KUMAR @ Mysuru

DAYS after being appointed as a member of the BJP Parliamentary Board and the party's Central Election Committee, veteran BJP leader BS Yediyurappa kickstarted the 'Veer Savarkar Ratha Yatra' from Kote Anjaneyaswamy Temple in Mysuru on Tuesday.

Terming Savarkar "a great nationalist", Yediyurappa said even former prime minister Indira Gandhi had called him a "hero and an immortal in the history of India", and former Presidents Radhakrishnan and Zakir Hussain had also praised him. Those opposing Savarkar do it for cheap publicity and political reasons, he added.

The seven-day yatra will criss-cross Mysuru, Mandya and Chamarajanagar districts "to educate masses and clear myths of people" about Savarkar and his role in the freedom struggle.

He said that when the country is emerging as "Vish-

waguru" and facing challenges from its neighbours, it is unfortunate that there is a propaganda launched against Savarkar that he was not a freedom fighter.

He claimed that Savarkar opposed the British through his struggle, appealed to people to reject foreign goods and there is a need for the younger generation to follow in his footsteps.

He said people should not forget the "heartfelt condolences of Jayaparkash Narayan" for Savarkar and alleged that a few leaders are misleading the public by distorting history. He urged people to join the yatra and ensure that it passes off peacefully.

Asked about Siddaramaiah's attack on Savarkar, Yediyurappa said that without any knowledge of religion and country, Siddaramaiah is making an irresponsible statement. The people of the state will give him a fitting reply if he continues to make such statements, he added.

He hit out at Siddaramaiah for planning the 'Kodagu Chalo', despite Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai's assurance that action will be taken against those involved in the egg incident.

Vijayendra stands in for BSY, to focus on state

DEVARAJ B HIREHALLI
@ Bengaluru

WITH former chief minister B S Yediyurappa being elevated to the national level as a member of the BJP Parliamentary Board, his son and party state vice-president B Y Vijayendra has started focusing on Karnataka affairs, especially keeping the backing of religious heads intact.

On Monday, Vijayendra took part in various religious events in Gadag and Shivamogga districts, where he sought the blessings of Veerashaiva Lingayat community head Sri Karivrushabadeshikendra Swami of Nonavinakere Karibaveshwara Mutt near Tiptur, and also Sri Dingaleshwara Swami of Shirahatti, of Sri Jagadguru Fakeereshwara Mutt, which is famous for communal harmony.

For over a decade, Yediyurappa managed to have a grip on the community's religious institutions across the state, and Vijayendra, who is eyeing the chief minister's post in future, is also trying it out and has almost succeeded, according to sources.

For 2023, following his father's advice, Vijayendra is preparing the ground to contest from Shikaripura assembly seat. In fact, Yediyurappa had already declared Vijayendra's candidature for the seat, which he is likely to vacate. Though the declaration had sparked off a controversy, Yediyurappa managed to convince the party high command, which has also given its green signal, a source informed TNIE.

Vijayendra also wooed the Lambani (SC) community by taking part in the 71st birthday bash of Shirahatti MLA Ramappa Lamani, an influential leader of the community. This sends out a clear message to the Lambani community in Shikaripura, which has a considerable voter population after the Veerashaiva Lingayat community. The community has traditionally backed Yediyurappa, and also B Y Raghavendra in Shivamogga Lok Sabha constituency. Now, Vijayendra is trying to win them over ahead of his electoral debut, observed a political pundit.

The roadshow in Shikaripura clearly indicated that Vijayendra is focusing on the constituency for a strong grounding so that he can attend to the BJP's assignments, which could be on the cards for him ahead of the 2023 polls.

SIDDU'S POLL CALLING TAKES HIM TO TEMPLES, MUTTS

BANSY KALAPPA @ Bengaluru

CONGRESS Legislature Party leader Siddaramaiah has increased visits to mutts and temples, apparently eyeing Hindu votes ahead of the 2023 Assembly elections.

Over the last few weeks, he visited temples in Madikeri, Chikkamagaluru and Badami, and also the Rambhupuri Mutt and other mutts.

BJP, which wins polls largely because of the support of the majority Hindu community, may have felt threatened with Siddaramaiah's sudden interest in temples. Go Madhusudan, a former BJP MLC, said, "It is true that he is visiting more temples. Many of them are Lingayat-Veerashaiva temples. He visited the Rambhupuri swamiji and also the Kodlipet temple, which is a prominent Lingayat temple. This is an attempt to win back Lingayat constituents who are assumed to have gone away from Congress."

On Tuesday, Siddaramaiah said, "I have gone to temples in Tirupati, Chamundi Hills, MM Hills and at my village. But I believe that there is only one God everywhere."

A member of the Dandu family, which is close to Siddaramaiah, said, "Whenever

Former CM Siddaramaiah meets Murugha Mutt seer Dr Shivamurthy Murugha Swami

Siddaramaiah has filed his nomination papers before elections, he has visited temples. He went to the Chamundeshwari temple in 2018 and also in 2006, when he contested the bitterly fought Chamundeshwari bypoll and won by a thin margin of 258 votes against the JDS candidate. Just that, he does not make a show of his temple visits."

Political analyst BS Murthy said, "The political narrative in the state has been dominated by Siddaramaiah. From his hugely successful birthday bash to his visits to temples and religious mutts over the last few weeks, it is a new Siddaramaiah we are witnessing now. The frequency of visits too has been high. As compared to his term as chief minister, the optics of Siddaramaiah's visits to Lingayat mutts and temples stand out now. The front foot play by Siddaramaiah to build a positive narrative among Lingayat voters has unnerved BJP, forcing them to resort to criticising his food habits. One can clearly see that BJP is on the backfoot."

Congress senior leader Rahul Gandhi too has been peddling soft Hindutva by increasing his temple visits since 2014. KPCC president DK Shivakumar has had a penchant for visiting temples and has done so more number of times than his predecessors Dinesh Gundurao, Dr G Parameshwara and RV Deshpande.

Chicken politics: Congress leaders challenge BJP

ENS @ Bengaluru

WITH a number of WhatsApp messages doing the rounds critical of opposition leader Siddaramaiah for allegedly eating a chicken dish before visiting a temple, former MP VS Ugrappa and former minister HM Revanna on Tuesday came to his defence.

"If BJP and RSS have the guts, they should declare that they don't want votes of those who eat non-vegetarian food. They should declare that such people should not support their party," Ugrappa said. He asked how many Ram bhakts in BJP have read the Ramayana? "In the Ramayana, Sita prays to the River Ganga as she crosses it: Protect us for 14 years, and when we come back, I will give you meat and liquor to your satisfaction. When Lord Ram goes to Maharishi Bharadwaj's ashram, the latter says to him, 'You are a Kshatriya. You, Lakshmana and your wife Sita are meat eaters,'" Ugrappa said. "There is the story of Bedara Kannappa who gives meat to Lord Shiva. Lord Tirupati Thimmappa's devotees offer meat to the diety on Shravana Saturdays. Goddess Lakshmi Narasimha of Tumakuru is also offered meat," he said. Revanna pointed out that close to 80 per cent of Indians are nonvegetarians. "Meat is offered during worship in many temples. In Pandavapura, brandy and meat are offered to a deity. Chicken and liquor are kept in a temple at Irkur in Kannur district of Kerala and nonvegetarian dishes are offered as prasadam," he said.

'What more can we expect from him'

MANGALURU: BJP state president and Dakshina Kannada MP Nalin Kumar Kateel on Tuesday attacked Congress Legislature Party (CLP) leader Siddaramaiah for his statement on VD Savarkar and for "visiting a temple after eating nonvegetarian food". "Siddaramaiah does not have faith in either God or the country. What more can we expect from such a person? He has made everyone aware about his thinking by asking why one can't visit a temple after eating meat. It is the question of beliefs and religious sentiments," he said. ENS

WHILE the government had not taken any such action, the Karnataka High Court recently ordered the abolition of the ACB and directed that the cases it was handling should be transferred to the Lokayukta. The court had also directed the government to strengthen the Lokayukta which was rendered powerless after its powers to take up cases under the Prevention of Corruption Act were taken away.

Bommai said a decision was taken in a cabinet meeting that the government will not appeal against the court order and it has already initiated the process to implement it. He also said the government has nothing to do with a petition filed in the Supreme Court against the order; and if required, it will explain its stand in the apex court.

Meanwhile, CM Bommai hit out at former chief minister Siddaramaiah for accusing the government of supporting the BJP workers' protest against him during his visit to Kodagu. Allegations made by the former CM are false, he said, adding that the government has already ordered a probe and enhanced his security. "There is no need for our government to do anything like that," he added.

ASHWINI M SRIPAD @Bengaluru

TO give a big boost to rural sports, for the first time, the Rural Development and Panchayat Raj Department has joined hands with the Department of Youth and Sports to organise sport meets, which will also include bullock cart races. The events will be held from the panchayat to the state level and the proposal has already been approved by the government.

A joint circular issued by the departments stated that Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai is keen on conducting rural sport meets, where kabaddi, kho-kho, traditional wrestling and bullock cart races will be held.

RDPR Additional Chief Secretary LK Atheeq told The New Indian Express that the sports meets can be held on playgrounds developed at many places under MGNREGA. "This is the first time that these sports meets are being organised in such a big manner. We will launch the meets on August 29, which is the National Sports Day," he added.

The detailed guidelines stated that there is no age limit for the participants. All the competitions will be held at the gram panchayat, taluk, district and state levels. While gram panchayats can use 2 per cent of the revenue, for taluk and district level meets, the funds will be allotted through the zilla panchayat under the sport grants. Department officials have been directed to give Rs 200 to the participants at the taluk level and Rs 250 at the district level. They will also be paid Rs 300 for breakfast, lunch and dinner.

Districts that have less than three taluks can send the first three places to the district level meet. Districts with four to five taluks can send top two teams and those with more than six or more taluks, the first team goes through. Those who win at the district level can take part in the state level meet.

BOOST FOR RURAL SPORTS

Soon, bullock cart races to be held from panchayat level

Will not sign Bills that are unconstitutional, says Kerala Gov

ENS @T'puram

A day before the Kerala government tables the Bill aimed at curtailing his powers in the selection of vice-chancellors in the Assembly, Governor Arif Mohammed Khan on Tuesday said he won't sign any legislation that goes against the Constitution or erodes the autonomy of universities.

"The government is free to do whatever it wants. However, a Bill becomes law only after the governor signs it," he told the media in New Delhi, referring to the government's move to introduce The University Laws (Amendment) Bill, 2022. The Bill proposes increasing the number of members in the VC selection committee from three to five to reportedly enable the selection of a candidate close to the ruling dispensation. Khan said the Supreme Court had made it clear to all universities and state governments that UGC rules should be implemented.

The governor reiterated his allegation that Kannur University VC Gopinath Ravindran was part of a conspiracy to carry out an "attack" against him during the History Congress at the varsity in 2019. He also called historian Irfan Habib, 91, who allegedly led the protests against him at the venue, a 'goonda' and accused him of trying to attack him physically.

'HEALTH OF WOMEN, CHILDREN AT CORE OF NEW AMRITA HOSPITAL'

WITH Prime Minister Narendra Modi set to inaugurate the 2,600-bed Amrita Hospital in Faridabad today, Swami Amritaswarupanda Puri, vice chairman of Mata Amritanandamayi Math, puts the healthcare mission of the Math in context in an interview to Preetha Nair. The much-awaited Amrita Hospital at Faridabad will be inaugurated by PM Modi on August 24.

How do you envision this venture taking forward the legacy of compassionate and inclusive healthcare? In Amma's own words, "Compassion is both the beginning and culmination of spirituality." The new hospital will carry with it Amma's special blend of compassionate care for all with cutting-edge technology. This is the same paradigm Amma initiated 25 years ago in Kochi when the first Amrita Hospital was launched. In Faridabad, it is the same vision; only the scale is much larger. So, we will continue our tried-and-tested mechanism of cross-subsidising patient care. In addition, we will be extending our services by incorporating large public insurance schemes like the Ayushman Bharat, ECHS, CGHS, etc.

What can you say about Amma's vision and thought

KEY NUMBERS
2,600 beds	81 specialities	130-acre campus	5.2 lakh square-foot medical college	64 fully networked modular operation theatres
Smart ICUs with 534 critical care beds that are digitally monitored around-the-clock
The largest paediatric super-speciality centre in India dedicated to mother and child care
State-of-the-art fully automated smart laboratories
High-precision radiation oncology, the largest of its kind in the country
India's largest and most advanced physical medicine and rehabilitation centre
Centre of Excellence for Nuclear Medicine in diagnostics and therapeutics Largest facilities to handle infectious diseases process in providing healthcare to society?

All the projects, undertaken by the Mata Amritanandamayi Math are an outcome of Amma's direct experience of the day-to-day hardships and sufferings of people she witnesses around her. Amma has always expressed a spontaneous motherly love for everyone and everything. Thus, just as a regular mother will do everything she can to ensure her own children receive the high-quality medical care they require to be healthy, Amma is doing everything she can to make sure everyone—all of her "children"—can receive the high-quality medical care they require.

What about Swamiji's vision and mission in implementing Amma's compassionate initiative?

In the middle of the Kurukshetra battlefield, Lord Krishna imparted the secret of material and spiritual success to Arjuna. One among the many profound pieces of advice Krishna gave to Arjunawas is nimitta-matram bhava — "Be a mere instrument." In this manner, we can, in some small way, be of service to others. Amma is doing everything; we are just her instruments.

What are the state-of-the-art facilities at Amrita Hospital at Faridabad?

Amrita Hospital, Faridabad spreads across 130 acres. The hospital will have 2,600 beds, 81 specialities, 64 fully-networked modular operation theatres, and smart ICUs with 534 critical care beds. It begins as home to eight Centres of Excellence, including of radiation oncology, cardiac sciences, neurosciences, gastro sciences, renal sciences, bone diseases and trauma, transplants, and mother and child care.

At Amrita Hospital, Faridabad, the health of women and children comes foremost. It will be home to India's largest paediatric super-speciality centre in a seven-floor building and will run maternal and foetal medicine and all paediatric sub-specialities, including a 40-bed unit of nursery and neonatal intensive care. Advanced technology will support the hospital's large spectrum of practice, including state-of-the-art fully-automated smart laboratories, the most advanced medical imaging services in the country, and the latest in cardiac and interventional cath labs for clinical services. Coming out of the Covid-19 pandemic, the hospital is also prioritising India's largest facilities for infectious diseases.

Governor briefed on K'taka railway projects

"The profile, history of SWR, major development projects and initiatives undertaken to improve railway infrastructure in Karnataka were presented," said an official release. Chief Public Relations Officer Anesh Hegde told TNIE, "The meeting lasted 30 minutes. The status of ongoing doubling works, new lines, the 'One Station, one product' scheme were among the projects presented." ENS

Duo kills woman for jewels, but gets only Rs 10

Bengaluru: A woman and her boyfriend who had murdered a 42-year-old woman expecting a bounty were disappointed when they found only Rs 10 in the purse of the deceased. The duo went missing after the murder. But, Mandya district police who had registered a case solved the mystery by arresting Lakshmi, a native of Honniganahalli in Channapata taluk and her boyfriend Narayana, a resident of Banashankar III Stage in Bengaluru.

According to Halagur police, on July 28, 2021, they found a body of a woman near Mullaiahnakkatte Gudda in Malavalli taluk. The head was smashed with a boulder. The police investigation found that the body of the woman resembled that of a missing complaint registered in Bengaluru. The police then traced the mobile phone tower locations of the deceased and found that accused Lakshmi too was active in the same location. The police took Lakshmi into custody for interrogation recently and found her to be an acquaintance of Shobha, the deceased. She had seen Shobha with gold ornaments and had sought some financial help. However, Shobha declined to help. The accused had seen Shobha wearing gold ornaments and keeping it in her purse during work at a garment factory. "Shobha was a loner after the death of her parents. She even had health issues. On pretext of taking her to an ayurvedic doctor, Lakshmi and Nani took her from Bengaluru to Muthatti where the duo stopped midway and killed her," said the police.

Vizhinjam stir pre-planned, says Kerala CM

Thiruvananthapuram: Terming the ongoing protest against the Vizhinjam port project 'pre-planned', Kerala Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan on Tuesday said outsiders were involved in the stir. "People other than fishers from the area are involved in the protest. It should be seen as a pre-planned agitation," Pinarayi said in the assembly. The CM's remarks, made ahead of his proposed meeting with the protesters, drew sharp criticism inside and outside the house. While Opposition said the CM calling the stir pre-planned was unfortunate, Latin Archdiocese of Thiruvananthapuram, which is spearheading the protest, said the government was protecting the contractor. ENS

INDIAN EXPRESS IS NOT AN INDUSTRY. IT IS A MISSION.

CENTRE'S FREEBIE IS SOCIAL WELFARE FOR THE STATES

The raging debate over freebie versus welfare schemes has gone beyond an exasperating squabble over semantics. The 15th Finance Commission, tasked to recommend measures to fortify cooperative federalism and enhance the quality of public spending, used the term 'populist measure'. The new expression 'revdi culture', which likened the popular candy to freebies doled out by political parties in lieu of votes, has given fresh ammo to several Opposition-ruled states. They have unequivocally asserted that New Delhi is trespassing into their territorial freedom. Tamil Nadu Finance Minister Palanivel Thiagarajan, who strode into the debate with clinical ease, reminded BJP that a social welfare scheme for women in TN a few years ago that provided half the cost of scooter was flagged off by none other than the PM, when its alliance partner AIADMK was in power. His riposte created a flutter and pushed the Centre into a hushed corner. The apex court's entry into the space mostly carved out from the unconstitutional righteousness and its tenacity to set up a committee to separate the chaff have given the debate a lot more urgency. Several Opposition parties have impleaded themselves with intervention applications.

With the general elections around the corner, the Centre's mission to end the freebie culture is nothing less than walking on the razor's edge. The Opposition retort is high-pitched: the bulk of the Centre's welfare measures like cutting corporate taxes and waiver of bank loans have benefited the large corporate houses and ultra-rich people. As the country stares at rising inflation, it's not wrong to assume that New Delhi has rightly gauged its potential to sway voters.

Nobody can fault a government for splurging on welfare schemes when it runs a surplus budget. Of course, when the exchequer runs dry, doling out irrational freebies is hardly an option. But can one call all government facilities such as free education and healthcare freebies? Ensuring social justice is the primary job of a government, and welfare schemes indisputably prop up weaker sections. Reminding state governments of their debt levels and the need to cap expenditure is vital. But it may be imprudent to tell them how to spend their money. Instead, a debate on the efficacy and reach of the schemes will help.

RISE IN CAR AND HOME SALES PROMISING

Consumer spending on home-buying and passenger cars is on the uptick, the latest segment data seems to indicate. Despite the marginal rise in prices and the firming up of mortgage rates, housing sales in the top seven metros are all set to surpass annual sales of 2.62 lakh units achieved in the pre-pandemic year. Property sale registrations in Mumbai, Pune and the rest of Maharashtra showed that in the first four months of the current fiscal, more than 8 lakh units changed hands. This is still short of the 10 lakh units registered in the first four months of 2019-20, but the upward trend is visible. Passenger car sales in July showed an increase of 16% at 3.42 lakh units compared to just 2.95 lakh cars dispatched to dealerships in July 2021. Even sequentially, July sales this year were higher than June when 3.21 lakh cars were sold.

What is significant is that the luxury market seems to be opening up after the Covid freeze. Property consultant Anarock showed over 25,000 luxury flats priced above ₹1.5 crore sold in the first six months of this calendar year, surpassing sales in the last three years in this niche segment. Luxury buying is usually not a necessity, and when consumer sentiment rebounds, this segment is the hardest hit. In calendar 2020, luxury apartment sales plummeted to 8,470 units compared to 17,740 units in 2019.

The housing and auto industry were among the hardest hit during the pandemic, and it is important these sectors are now registering robust sales. Home-buying and car sales are bell weather indices for consumer sentiment, and market watchers are hoping the post-pandemic turnaround will also continue into the festival season. Soaring demand over Dussehra and Diwali driven by family buying will provide much-needed economic impetus. The only concern is some businesses often kill the proverbial Golden Goose by being greedy and hiking prices. Government and industry associations should hold the price line earnestly and ensure the consumer returns to the marketplace.

With the Chinese entrenching themselves firmly in Myanmar's economy and defence, Indian worries over the security implications for its sensitive Northeast will grow

MYANMAR ISSUE BAD NEWS FOR ACT EAST THRUST

SUBIR BHAUMIK

Ex-BBC correspondent, worked in Myanmar and authored books on regional conflicts

If Sri Lanka's economic collapse was bad news for India, Myanmar's escalating conflict and economic downslide would prove to be worse. Since the February 2021 military takeover and the brutal suppression of what initially was a peaceful protest movement for democracy, armed resistance groups have proliferated in the ethnic Bamar (Burman) regions seen as the heartland of Myanmar. These groups have linked up for tactical reasons with the long-standing ethnic rebel movements like those of the Kachins, Karens and the Shans, the Was and the Kokangs, stretching the Burmese army Tatmadaw more than ever in the recent past.

With the loosely grouped People's Defense Forces organising regular attacks on the Tatmadaw in the Sagaing region bordering India's Northeast, the states of Manipur and Mizoram are faced with a rising flow of refugees.

More than 30,000 refugees from Myanmar are already believed to have entered these two states. They include at least 50 lawmakers of the Myanmar parliament, mostly belonging to Aung San Suu Kyi's National League for Democracy (NLD) which had swept the 2019 national elections and was set to form a government a second time.

The PDF insurgents owe allegiance to the National Unity Government (NUG), which claims to be the "real government of the Myanmar people".

Since the NUG has not only representatives from leading parties like NLD but also from powerful civil society groups and ethnic organisations, it has come to be seen as a broad-based national movement for change, with most looking up to it for leadership as Suu Kyi is in prison and her jail term has been extended by six years.

While discussing the NUG's agenda, its foreign minister Zin Mar Aung recently told this writer that "our struggle now is to oust the military from politics and take the country towards democracy". Madame Aung has been strongly lobbying with Western democracies as well as India and ASEAN to facilitate a dialogue to restore the parliament and send the army back to the barracks. Since there has been little progress in that direction and the ASEAN's Five Point Consensus has failed to achieve a breakthrough, young Burmese have taken to arms in a desperate effort to fight the military and force it out of power. The Tatmadaw is badly stretched, and morale in the lower echelons is dropping, as evident from rising defections. However, it still has enough firepower to pound the PDF and other ethnic rebel armies. With strong support from China and Russia, the military junta feels it can just about hang on.

Myanmar's economy is on the verge of collapse, though the military junta is not forthcoming with data about foreign exchange reserves. But panic has gripped Myanmar over the growing likelihood of a Sri Lanka-type economic collapse after the country's central bank called on all citizens this month to convert their foreign currency holdings and remittances received from abroad into the local currency kyat. Myanmar's foreign reserves are believed to have dwindled sharply, and foreign debt has escalated as Western sanctions following the Feb 2021 coup and the raging Covid pandemic have adversely impacted the nation's economy.

But the country's military rulers continue to sign up for more and more Chinese-funded infrastructure projects and allow Chinese companies to take over mines and other profitable businesses. That is the hope that the Chinese will bail them out in a Sri Lanka or Pakistan-type crisis. Burmese fighters opposing the military rule are increasingly targeting Chinese business interests. Even other foreign investors are pulling out of the country. For India, the deteriorating situation in Myanmar has three immediate impacts.

One, Indian connectivity projects like the Kaladan Multi-Modal Transport Corridor are not likely to be completed anytime soon. Already behind schedule, the escalating conflict across the country has made it impossible for Delhi to complete these projects. India's much-vaunted 'Act East' policy cannot be taken forward without these projects unless the situation stabilises in Myanmar. The country's return to democracy in the last decade has raised hopes for India to use it as the land bridge to the rest of Southeast Asia, but the 2021 coup and the severe breakdown of law and order have torpedoed that hope. 'Act East' through the Northeast will never be possible without a peaceful Myanmar.

Second, the escalating refugee problem will have an adverse impact on the Northeastern states, taxing their limited resources. It will also complicate bilateral relations as PDF and ethnic rebels seek to use the Indian states to launch attacks or procure weapons. Locals in Mizoram and Manipur may support them, but Delhi does not want to upset the Burmese military junta because it fears that it will drive it further into the Chinese embrace. That may cause friction between the Centre and the Northeastern states.

Third, as the Burmese military junta wilts under growing global pressure, collapsing economy and mounting insurgencies, it will draw closer to China, which strongly backs the junta. The military regime has already cleared 15 mega infrastructure projects funded by China since the February 2021 coup, drawing Myanmar into a substantial Chinese debt trap. The Burmese generals are totally dependent on Chinese support to protect their back at the UN and in other global forums. With the Chinese entrenching themselves firmly in Myanmar's economy and defence sectors, Indian worries over the security implications for its sensitive Northeast will grow.

The Mexican president recently called for a more significant Indian role alongside the UN and the Pope in global peace diplomacy. If there is one area where Delhi could try that out, it is Myanmar. It has so far backed the ASEAN by supporting its Five Point Consensus and adopted a wait-and-watch approach. Since that has not cut much ice, India could try out a Gandhi Peace Mission in Myanmar to explore the possibilities of starting a comprehensive dialogue involving all stakeholders. An aspiring regional power cannot just sit back and watch a crucial neighbouring country slip into absolute chaos.

CLASSIFICATION OF CREDITORS UNDER IBC

KAVYA LALCHANDANI

Assistant Lecturer, Jindal Global Law School

The debate on the categorisation of particular creditors as financial or operational or not even falling under those categories is not novel. The issue of categorisation has been persisting since the inception of the Insolvency and Bankruptcy Code, 2016 (IBC) because of the underlying scheme of the IBC. This categorisation is by no means irrelevant, at least in the context of the IBC. The Scheme under the IBC is such that all the creditors prefer to fall under at least one of these two categories, the financial creditor category being the more preferred one.

The operational creditors are still on a backfoot compared to the financial creditors. This is because being categorised as an operational creditor does not guarantee any recovery. However, these creditors are still better placed than others, such as the involuntary creditors who will not even have a chance to recover anything unless prescribed by the IBC itself.

Moreover, after the recent judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in Vidarbha Industries Power Limited v. Axis Bank Limited, a distinction has been created between accepting the claims of financial creditors and operational creditors. It has been held that the acceptance of claims of the financial creditors is discretionary while for the operational creditors, it is mandatory.

This may seem to contradict the debt and default model that the IBC works on, that is, if it is proved that there was a debt and that was defaulted upon, then the creditors can make an application to the Adjudicating Authority. The discretion is not boundless and is limited, since the facts of the case do not allow its application in all cases. But it definitely has stirred up a controversy because, on the face of it, this puts a dent in the position of the financial creditors. The same has been true for the homebuyers being categorised as financial creditors—this was because the allottees were a vulnerable class and were supposed to be given the most protected status under the IBC.

The controversy has not been limited to whether a particular creditor is a financial or operational creditor, but in fact, whether the creditor falls in any of the categories. For instance, the controversy about unpaid license fees being regarded as an operational debt is

We should not brush off the classification as irrelevant or having only little significance. ... As we are adopting new methods of resolution of debts such as mediation, and pre-packs within the scheme of IBC, the roles and rights of creditors are serious and pertinent questions still pending before the Supreme Court.

In Jaipur Trade Expocentre Private Limited v. M/s Metro Jet Airways Training Private Limited, the full bench National Company Law Appellate Tribunal [NCLAT] has held that license fee should be considered as operational debt. By pronouncing this judgement, the NCLAT overruled its judgement in M Ravindranath Reddy v. G Kishan. The license agreement in Jaipur Trade Expocentre Private Limited was entered into by the parties to run an educational institution. According to NCLAT, the Adjudicating Authority erred in holding that the services under Section 5(21) would not include a license fee agreement of such nature.

Before this, in another case, Promila Taneja vs. Surendri Design Pvt. Ltd., the NCLAT held that the definition of services under the Consumer Protection Act and Goods and Services Act cannot be imported for the purposes of the classification of a debt under IBC. This judgement was distinguished from and not adopted in the Jaipur Trade Expocentre case. Moreover, the judgement in the Promila Taneja case has been appealed before the Supreme Court and is currently pending over there.

There have been many such debates previously—the debate on licensing fees is just a recent one.

The essential point of classification of debt and consequently the creditors is the order of priorities and strength of the creditors in meetings and otherwise. We should not brush off the classification as irrelevant or having only little significance. This is because of many reasons apart from the ones stated above.

As we are adopting new methods of resolution of debts such as mediation, and pre-packs within the scheme of IBC, the roles and rights of creditors are serious and pertinent questions. Any classification which is not desirable can lead to adverse consequences like significant cram downs once a majority of the class of particular creditors, mostly the financial creditors, has approved a plan or any scheme or pre-packs.

India's two maladies

In his Independence Day speech, PM Modi spoke about how India can become a superpower if it eliminates two maladies—nepotism and corruption. But here is the catch when it comes to 'nepotism'—it is not just limited to family, but any other instance of favouritism as well. A good example is when the government chose Anil Ambani over HAL as a partner for the Rafale deal, despite HAL being more experienced. This is just one example among many. What Modi has said about the nepotism and corruption are very lofty ideals. The real question is—how will this be implemented?

Governors not governing

The governor's role is well-defined in the Constitution. Yet, those governors posted in opposition-ruled states use the loopholes to overstep their role, in their enthusiasm to please their masters. The Centre is pleased with two such governors which is evident in both of them being considered for the vice-presidential post. One of them is our VP. Will the Centre ever post a non-partisan governor?

Faulty engine

It was quite amusing to read a small news item BJP survey for CM face makes buzz in state (August 23). Ever since Narendra Modi has become PM, he has been shown as the CM face in states. Apart from that, they now speak about "Double Engine ki Sarkar". Why is the BJP spending time and money? Ultimately, Modi and Shah decide who will be chief minister.

Milari's folly

Mizoram CM Zoramthanga's daughter Milari Chhangte assaulted a dermatologist. I would like to praise the CM for apologising on behalf of his daughter. But this behaviour is not uncommon among the children of politicians and other bigwigs. Drunk on power, they often tend to disrespect those around them. The nature of feeling invincible due to the status of one's parents is despicable.

Politics gone wrong

It is very unfortunate to see our leaders hurling abuses and indulging in name-calling every day. It will be unfortunate if investigative agencies are forced to follow the orders of political parties rather than doing their job in an unbiased manner. The idea used to be to strive for betterment, but all that happens now are allegations. Isn't there a single statesman who can speak out against this, or has her or his voice been silenced? These stalwarts fail to realise that this will ultimately weaken the nation and divide our people.

Munugode seat

It is such a sorry state of affairs to see the Munugode assembly seat empty when hardly a little over a year is left for the Telangana assembly elections. Holding a by-election for Munugode is proving to be costly, emptying the public coffers. Elections are held to select representatives who think and act on behalf of the people. Instead, vacancies like this are very unorganised and shabby. The rules must change.

Bilkis case: SC to hear plea against relief to 11 convicts

Top Court had earlier asked Gujarat govt to consider the plea

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ chennai

THE Supreme Court on Tuesday agreed to consider listing of the PIL filed by social activist Subhashini Ali, journalist Revati Laul and professor Rop Rekha Verma challenging the remission granted to the 11 convicts in the Bilkis Bano case.

The petition wherein the activists had sought for production as well as setting aside of the remission order dated August 15, 2022 passed by the Government of Gujarat and directing immediate re-arrest of the convicts was mentioned by Senior Advocate Kapil Sibal and Advocate Aparna Bhat before the bench of CJI NV Ramana, Justices Hima Kohli and CT Ravikumar.

Sibal submitted that challenge was only preferred against the remission order granted to the 11 persons and not the Supreme Court's order which had held that Gujarat Government was the appropriate government to consider the remission in the case.

"We're challenging the remission order granted to 11 persons who were convicted for killing 14 persons. The Supreme Court order is fine. Pregnant women were raped & killed," Sibal said. Bhat also urged the bench to consider the matter tomorrow.

Considering the submission, CJI said, "We will see".

The 11 convicts who were freed were sentenced to life imprisonment for gang rape and murder of multiple people during the Godhra riots in 2002 by the Sessions Court. Their conviction was even upheld in 2017 by the Gujarat HC. Bilkis Bano who was pregnant at the time was gang raped and her 3 year old daughter was killed by a mob during the violence that broke across the state after Sabarmati Express was attacked in Godhra.

It has been argued in the petition that the competent authority was not an authority which was entirely independent and the one that could apply its mind to the facts.

"It would appear that the constitution of members of the competent authority of the State of Gujarat, also bore allegiance to a political party, and also were sitting MLAs. As such, it would appear that the competent authority was not an authority that was entirely independent, and one that could independently apply its mind to the facts at hand," plea stated.

Activists in the plea have also argued that no right thinking authority applying any test under any extant policy would consider it fit to grant remission to persons who were found to have been involved in the commission of such gruesome acts.

TOP COURT

SC: Ramdev can't abuse doctors

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ New Delhi

THE Supreme Court on Tuesday came down heavily on Ramdev for accusing allopathy doctors as killers.

Chief Justice of India NV Ramana, although stressed on the fact that Ramdev had popularised yoga but said that ayurveda might not always work and that he shouldn't abuse doctors' systems.

"What happened to Baba Ramdev? Why should we popularise him? What is the guarantee that ayurveda would cure? All advertisements accusing doctors as killers? He can't abuse doctors and the systems," the CJI said.

The remarks were made by the top judge while considering a petition represented by IMA accusing Ramdev of running smear campaigns against vaccination drives and modern allopathic medicines across the country. The petition had sought to take action against the advertisements promoting Ayush System by disparaging Allopathic system.

SC refers pleas filed by Sena, Shinde to Constitution bench

SHRUTI KAKKAR @ chennai

THE Supreme Court on Tuesday referred to a five-judge bench the petitions filed by the Shiv Sena and Maharashtra Chief Minister Eknath Shinde raising several constitutional questions related to defection, merger and disqualification.

A bench headed by Chief Justice N V Ramana ordered the listing of petitions before the constitution bench on Thursday and directed the Election Commission not to pass any orders on Shinde faction's plea that it be considered the real Shiv Sena and granted the party's poll symbol.

"List matter before Constitution Bench day after tomorrow and issue as to whether proceedings before Election Commission should go on or not can be considered by that bench. Till such time let the Election Commission not take any action," the CJI said after considering the request made by Senior Advocate Kapil Sibal for restraining the ECI from deciding Shinde's claim.

While referring the matter

List matter before Constitution Bench day after tomorrow and issue as to whether proceedings before Election Commission should go on or not can be considered by that bench. Till such time let the Election Commission not take any action to a larger bench, the CJI led bench noted that it was imperative to settle the issue related to the power of the Speaker/Deputy Speaker to initiate disqualification proceedings when such proceedings had been initiated against him.

Court also said that the issue as to whether a petition under Article 32 or 226 could lie against disqualification proceedings and could a court holds that member was deemed to be disqualified due by virtue of his own actions.

The bench was hearing pending cases related to the recent political crisis in Maharashtra that led to the fall of the Maha Vikas Aghadi (MVA) government in the state.

SC strikes down provision of 1988 benami law

NEW DELHI: The Supreme Court on Tuesday struck down one of the provisions of the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act of 1988, which provides for the punishment of a maximum jail term of three years or a fine or both for those indulging in 'benami' transactions. The Supreme Court termed the provision 'unconstitutional' on the ground of being 'manifestly arbitrary'. "We hold section 3(2) of the Benami Transactions (Prohibition) Act, 1988 as unconstitutional," a bench comprising Chief Justice N V Ramana and Justices C T Ravikumar and Hima Kohli said. Section 3 of the statute deals with the issue of 'Prohibition of benami transactions' and its impugned sub-section (2) says: 'Whoever enters into any benami transaction shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to three years or with fine or with both.'

Termination orders have been served upon the officers on 23 Aug 22." "BrahMos missile was accidentally fired on 09 March 2022. A Court of Inquiry (Col), set up to establish the facts of the case, including fixing responsibility for the incident, found that deviation from the Standard Operating Procedures (SOP) by three officers led to the accidental firing of the missile, added the Air Force change of guard ahead of assembly elections?

All this is a creation of the Congress. They have nothing to do except rumour mongering as part of their failed electoral strategy. There is no question of a change of guard. Bommai is a mature, experienced leader who believes in the party's ideology of 'sabka saath sabka vikas.'

How can Yediyurappa help the party after being included in the parliamentary board?

He is one of the most experienced leaders of the party. He has been the chief minister four times and thrice the leader of Opposition. He has been MLA for eight times. The BJP will fight elections under his guidance. He will be addressing public meetings, touring and campaigning for the party. However, the party will fight the election under BS Bommai's leadership with the guidance of Yediyurappa whose induction in the parliamentary board will benefit the party.

The grapevine is that Nitin Gadkari has been dropped due to his differences with the central leadership. How far is it true?

It is totally misleading and false. The change in system keeps happening within the party. This adds to the party's prestige, as it is a part of the party's internal democracy. This has not been influenced by any differences. There is no difference at any level.

How far has the BJP's 'Mission South' progressed? The BJP is hopeful to win a huge number of seats in southern states. In Telangana, the party is expanding its support base. The party is reaching the people across south India and getting tremendous response. As part of 'Mission South', after Karnataka, Telangana is the top priority of the party and we are working to come to power. We have a galaxy of leaders there. One of the prominent leaders of Telangana has been included in the parliamentary board. He is Dr K Laxman, national president of the OBC Morcha, who is a Rajya Sabha MP from UP. G Krishna Reddy is also the party's prominent and influential leader.

Infighting is going on within the Rajasthan BJP. How will your party come to power?

The Congress-ruled Rajasthan has lawlessness beyond control. The state has returned to jungle raj with rampant corruption. There is nothing to claim that there is any government. Ashok Gahlot has tried hard to save his CM's chair. The BJP will fight the Assembly polls on the issues of crime and corruption with collective leadership of PM Modi. There is no infighting in the state unit of the party.

How many Congress MLAs in Rajasthan are in touch with you?

There are many Congress leaders, including some MLAs, who want to join the BJP. Ours is an old organization in Rajasthan. We will take a final decision on welcoming such leaders after proper consultation.

This is the overall highest national percentage in terms of having access to the toilet facility. Madhya Pradesh has a Jain population of over 5.67 lakh. Maharashtra has over 14 lakh, Rajasthan over 6.22 lakh and Gujarat over 5.79 lakh.

people of Christian community come in third position, with 91.2% of total households having access to toilets.

More than 90% of Muslim households, which is the bigger community among other minority population in the country, have so far obtained access to toilets, which is larger than the Hindu households' total access to toilets.

Surprisingly, the Hindu community comprises around 79.8% of India's total population but only 80.7% of its total households have access to toilets.

lets, the survey points out.

In the same way, 87.8% of Buddhist and neo-Buddhist households have access to toilets. Around 72.5% of households in the rest of other communities have access to toilets even after the country has promoted the Swachh Bharat Abhiyan.

Cong sees red as minister compares PM book to Gita

RAJESH ASNANI @ Jaipur

UNION Water Minister Gajendra Singh Shekhawat's claim that a book to mark PM Narendra Modi's 20 years in office (12 years as Gujarat CM and eight years as PM) will be as important as Bhagwad Gita has sparked a row in Rajasthan.

Shekhawat's remarks came at a seminar in Jhunjhunu, where he made the comparison, enraging Congress leaders. State Congress chief Govind Dotasra said Shekhawat reflected the height of sycophancy that amounted to an insult to the holy book.

On Modi's completion of two decades in office, the BJP is organizing 'Modi@20' events across the country. The book, Modi @ 20: Dreams Meet Delivery was recently released by Home Minister Amit Shah in Delhi. It has several pieces written by eminent personalities such as Shah himself, shuttler PV Sindhu, actor Anupam Kher, economist Arvind Panagaria, writer Amish Tripathi, and others.

Talking about the book, Shekhawat said it would soon be as important as the Gita.

Shekhawat said the impact of Modi's work on inclusive development was not only visible but was also beyond the formal teaching of any management school in the world.

However, slamming his comparison, Dotasra said, "Those who sell shame in their greed of power should not pollute the path of religion by insulting the holy book of Sanatan culture. Shekhawat has crossed the heights of flattery."

Sirohi MLA and CM Ashok Gehlot's adviser Sanyam Lodha also targeted Shekhawat by reminding him of a Sanskrit verse from the Gita, which means, "those who are too attached to the sense of gratification and material opulence do not have the firm resolve in the devotion to God."

Shekhawat is a top contender for chief ministerial face in the Rajasthan polls due next year.

Thousands moved to camps amid rain fury

IAF, national and state disaster management teams in action as 48-hour downpour ravages Madhya Pradesh

ANURAAG SINGH @ Bhopal

WITH rescue operations gathering momentum after two days of heavy rains in large parts of Madhya Pradesh, over 2,400 people hit by floods in various districts were rescued and shifted to safer places.

Chief Minister Shivraj Singh Chouhan conducted an aerial survey of the flood-affected villages in Vidisha, Raisen, Guna, Rajgarh, Sehore, Sagar and Bhopal districts, and boarded an NDRF boat in a village in Vidisha and rescued people from there.

The NDRF, SDRF and state home guards teams rescued over 1,200-1,500 from Vidisha district. Most of them have been accommodated in 18 relief camps. Besides them, 4,200 others who were living in areas where the rivers have been threatening current, have been shifted to safer places.

Following the urgent request by the state government, the Indian Air Force also swung

The helicopters particularly succeeded in airlifting 28 villagers who were taking shelter on the terraces of houses in Muthiyakheda-Gadla village of Vidisha district.

Over 500 people have also been shifted to shelter camps in Rajgarh district.

Meanwhile, all major rivers, including Narmada, Chambal, Parvati, Kshipra and Shivana are in spate in various parts of the state. All major dams have been overflowing, due to which most gates were opened to release excess water.

Cong slams govt for ignoring farmers, Shinde pledges help

SUDHIR SURYAWANSHI @ Mumbai

THE Congress on Tuesday criticised the Shinde-Fadnavis government's approval of ₹25,000 crore supplementary budget allocations, pointing out that no provision was made for farmers.

Meanwhile, after reports of farmers' suicides, CMEknath Shinde said he will get them out of the crisis.

Maharashtra Congress party president Nana Patole said farmers have suffered huge losses due to heavy rain. He added that there is a need to declare wet drought in the state but the government is ignoring farmers' issues.

"The state government has tabled supplementary demands worth ₹25,000 crore but no allocation was made for farmers. This government has left them in a lurch," Patole said. "Crops have been damaged, animals were swept away. There is a need to declare wet drought, but the state government does not think that farmers' issues are important," he added.

"A farmer from Osmanabad district attempted to set himself on fire in front of the Mantralaya on Tuesday, while another from Wardha district died by suicide on Monday. They are killing themselves every day but the government has not bothered to extend any help," Patole said.

Shinde, while replying to the Opposition, addressed farmers and said, "Your life is not cheap enough to hang on any tree. You are our asset... I swear to Shiv Chhatrapati, don't leave your precious life... I am a simple person with a twisted mind like you. I understand your pain. I am determined to get you out of this crisis. Money lending is a vicious cycle," Shinde said.

Won't defend convicts being hailed: Fadnavis

Mumbai: Maharashtra Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis on Tuesday said the accused in the Bilkis Bano case in Gujarat should not have been garlanded. While replying to the Opposition about the law and order situation, Fadnavis said they will try to sensitize police personnel about women victims. "The accused should be treated as accused only," he said. "I will not defend this action of garlanding people who are accused in Bilkis Bano case in Gujarat. The court has relieved them. They even spent 14 years in jail for their crime. But no one can defend the accused," Fadnavis added. He further said that the Shakti law will soon be implemented in Maharashtra to ensure speedy trial and punishment to the accused in sexual harassment and rape cases. He said the Shakti bill has been to the President of India for her consent.

BJP creates new team; rubber stamp, says Cong

NARENDRA SETHI @ Dehradun

THE BJP on Tuesday reconstituted the Uttarakhand executive team with most faces replaced. The main opposition Congress, whose state executive is yet to be formed, was quick to react, saying the BJP's new executive was limited to putting up placards of names in its offices.

After the green light from BJP chief JP Nadda, state party president Mahendra Bhatt announced the new team on Tuesday. Bhatt, a former MLA from Badrinath assembly constituency, became the state party president replacing Madan Kaushik in July.

Bhatt has tried to create regional, ethnic and social equations of Garhwal-Kumaon and in the plains of the Terai area. Among the eight state vice-presidents, Bhatt has given place to former MLAs Balwant Singh Bhoryal, Kuldeep Kumar, Mukesh Koli and Deshranj Karnwal.

Puneet Mittal is reappointed the treasurer again and Saket Agarwal is the co-treasurer. Eight state secretaries, including former MLAs Meena Gangola, Meera Raturi, Hema Joshi, Dr Lilavati Rana, Aditya Chauhan, Rakesh Nainwal, Gurminder Singh Chandok and Vikas Sharma, have been appointed.

Aditya Kothari, who was trailing in the race for the state president post, is the state general secretary along with Khilendra Chaudhary and Rajendra Bisht.

Congress state media in-charge Garima Dasoni said, "The BJP's new team is the rubber stamp of the Centre, which will not be able to take any decision on its own."

She said parties were supposed to raise issues related to public interest for the next four years. "We are constantly attacking the anti-people policies of the BJP. Therefore, we are taking time to choose a strong executive committee," she added.

C'garh CM miffed as staffers continue strike, BJP jumps to their side

EJAZ KAISER @ Raipur

CHHATTISGARH Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel has expressed his displeasure over the ongoing indefinite strike by the government employees. Baghel said that despite the various decisions taken by the government in their favour, if the staffers wish to continue the agitation, "it's up to them."

Saying that it cannot be "barter or bargain on hike," Baghel added, "Several employees have welcomed our decision on increasing the Dearness Allowance (DA) by 6 percent. The decisions are taken based on the economic condition of the state. We have delivered more than the previous (BJP) regime in the interest of the employees."

The state government last week gave the employees 6 per cent DA hike, which was cited as "insufficient" by the Chhattisgarh Employees-Officers Federation, following which they proceeded on a statewide strike from Monday.

"We demanded 34 per cent DA and HRA as per the 7th Pay Commission scale but both these have not been met. Some of our suggestions were also ignored," said Kamal Verma, the convener of the federation. However, the opposition BJP came out in open support of around 4 lakh protesting employees.

"Instead of raising the DA equal to that of the Central government employees, the Baghel government is crushing their right to hold peaceful agitation. The employees shouldn't worry. It's a matter of little over a year and the BJP will fulfill their demands after the formation of the government," said Raman Singh, BJP national vice-president and former CM said.

The Assembly polls in Chhattisgarh are due next year.

According to the orders issued by the state finance department, the employees received 22 per cent DA under the 7th Pay Commission and 174 per cent under the 6th Pay Commission since May 2022. After the revision, 6 per cent and 15 per cent hikes have been effected under the 7th and 6th Pay Commissions respectively, the state added. The staff will now get 28 percent and 189 per cent DA from August 1.

It will benefit around 3.8 lakh employees and is likely to put an additional annual burden of Rs 2,160 crore on the state exchequer.

Walking 2K km from Arunachal to meet PM over corruption

PRASANTA MAZUMDAR @ Guwahati

AN anti-corruption group has embarked on a padayatra from Arunachal Pradesh to New Delhi to bring attention of the Prime Minister to their complaint about Chief Minister Pema Khandu's alleged involvement in corruption.

Tarh Tahar and his friends from 'Arunachal Against Corruption' began the 2,140 km walk on Sunday from Itanagar. They reached Biswanath Chariali on Tuesday.

"People are showing us a lot of love. They call us for food and tea. We sleep wherever we get space," Tahar, the chief of the body, said.

Tahar says the scams entail ₹4,000-5,000 crore. "We will tell the PM that our CM is indulging in corruption. Modiji has given huge funds to Arunachal but projects are not being implemented," he said.

The BJP rejected the charges. "Some of these cases were probed by an SIT. Some are sub-judice," BJP state spokesman Tech Necha said.

BIHAR SPEAKER REFUSES TO QUIT, REJECTS NO-TRUST VOTE

RAMASHANKAR @ Patna

BIHAR is set to witness a Constitutional crisis after the Speaker of the state assembly, Vijay Kumar Sinha on Tuesday dismissed the 'no trust motion' brought against him by MLAs of the ruling grand alliance led by RJD and JD-U in the state. This comes a day before the two-day special session of Bihar assembly commences on Wednesday. The RJD has described the dismissal of the 'no confidence motion' as unjustified and against norms.

However, Sinha said the 'no trust motion' against him is not in accordance with rules. "Why should I resign? The 'no confidence motion' brought against me by 65 MLAs of the ruling grand alliance is based on false charges," Sinha said to the media when asked about his resignation from the Speaker's post. The BJP MLA from Lakhisarai said he would face the 'no trust motion' in the House.

Talking about the reason for his refusal to tender his resignation, Sinha said he had been accused of partisanship attitude, which he considers false. "Resigning in such circumstances will certainly hurt my self-respect," he said.

It has been almost two weeks since the 'no trust motion' was moved by the MLAs of the mahagathabandhan government. A notice was also served to the Speaker regarding the motion by the secretary of the assembly secretariat.

However, Sinha said he was occupying a constitutional post, he was bound to follow the norms associated with the office. "My priority will be to discharge my duty in accordance with the prescribed rules," he added.

When asked about Sinha's resignation, Bihar BJP chief Dr. Sanjay Jaiswal said it was his (Sinha's) discretion.

"It all depends on his decision," he told this newspaper on Tuesday.

The RJD has demanded that Sinha should resign from the post as he has lost the confidence of the members of the House.

"Sinha should make an honourable exit. I fail to fathom why he is sticking to the Speaker's post after the formation of a new government," RJD leader Shakti Singh Yadav said.

On the other hand, Deputy Speaker Maheshwar Hajari said Sinha should have resigned from the Speaker's post soon after the fall of the NDA government in the state. Under such circumstances, the Deputy Speaker presides over the proceedings of the House.

Some lawmakers say if Sinha fails to resign from the post by Wednesday morning and decides to preside over the proceedings of the House during the two-day Special session beginning on Aug. 24, a first-of-its-kind scene will be created in Bihar legislative assembly.

Nitish stokes row over his temple entry with Muslim minister

THE BJP on Tuesday demanded an apology from CM Nitish Kumar over a Muslim minister entering the Vishnupad temple in Gaya along with him on Monday. Former deputy CM and BJP MP Sushil Kumar Modi said, "Nitish has insulted the religion in a well-planned manner because he knows non-Hindus are not allowed inside the temple." Nitish visited the sanctum of Vishnupad temple along with Mohammad Israil Mansuri, prompting the temple management committee to the latter's dismissal from the cabinet. Temple management committee president Shambhu Lal Vitthal Vitthal "apologised" to Lord Vishnu and "purified" the temple with Ganga Jal. The temple entrance has a sign mentioning that non-Hindus cannot enter the shrine. Bihar JD-U chief Umesh Kushwaha said, "The BJP has no other issue. Even the Constitution permits a person to visit a religious place if he has faith in that religion." ENS

Former BJP allies echo opposition voice

Former BJP ally Shiv Sena has joined hands with Kashmir-based parties to fight the inclusion of non-locals in the voters' list in the Union Territory. Shiv Sena leader Manish Sahni attended the all-party meeting convened on Monday by National Conference chief Farooq Abdullah to discuss the issue. In the past, Shiv Sena in Jammu has been protesting against Abdullah and Mehbooba Mufti. Two more former BJP allies — JD-U and Akali Dal — also attended the meeting in Srinagar. The development hints of a possible political realignment in J&K ahead of the first-ever Assembly polls in the Union Territory.

Student enrolment rises in govt schools

Student enrolment in government schools in J&K has risen by 14.2% in last two years, Lt-Gov Manoj Sinha said at a function in Srinagar. Sinha said the number was dropping before 2019. It was on Aug. 5, 2019 that the Centre revoked Article 370. Sinha said despite the pandemic, 1.24 lakh students have been enrolled in government schools. The government is using Talaash app to identify children who had to drop out of school. Till now, 86,000 such kids have been brought back to classes. Also, 2,000 kindergartens will be established and 14,000 girls will be given NEET coaching, with the cost borne by the government.

Toshkhana to be moved to culture dept

The government has approved the transfer of administrative control of Toshkhana from the hospitality and protocol department to the culture department. The Toshkhana houses the gifts and antiques of erstwhile Dogra rulers of J&K. In Jammu, the articles are stored at Mubarak Mandi heritage complex while in Srinagar they have been kept in a locker at Saddar treasury. The decision to transfer the administrative control of Toshkhana to culture department will synchronise its functioning, an official spokesman said. The incumbent staff of Toshkhana has also been transferred to the culture department.

Ex-PM Najib goes to jail after losing graft appeal

The court also slapped a fine of $47 million on the former leader

PUTRAJAYA

MALAYSIAN ex-Prime Minister Najib Razak began his 12-year prison sentence on Tuesday after losing his final appeal in a graft case linked to the looting of the 1MDB state fund, with the top court unanimously upholding his conviction and sentence.

Najib, Malaysia's first former leader to be imprisoned, was whisked away to Kajang prison on the outskirts of Kuala Lumpur after the verdict. Opposition leaders, activists and many citizens hailed the court's swift ruling, calling it a victory for Malaysians who voted in 2018 to oust his government and bring Najib to justice.

The five-member Federal Court panel said it found the High Court's decision was correct and that Najib's appeal was devoid of any merits.

"This is a simple and straightforward case of abuse of power, criminal breach of trust and money laundering," said Chief Justice Maimun Tuan Mat, who read out the verdict.

"We are unable to conclude that any of the findings of the High Court, as affirmed by the Court of Appeal, were perverse or plainly wrong so as to warrant appellate intervention. We agree that the defense is so inherently inconsistent and incredible that it does not raise a reasonable doubt on the prosecution case," she said.

The court ordered Najib, who has been out on bail pending appeals since his sentence in 2020, to begin his time behind bars. He also must pay a $47 million fine.

First female Chief Justice under attack

Maimun Tuan Mat, Malaysia's first female chief justice appointed in 2019, has come under attack on social media from Najib's supporters. Police arrested a man over the weekend in connection with death threats made against Maimun. Hundreds of Najib's supporters gathered outside the court in a show of support 1MDB was a development fund that Najib set up shortly after taking power in 2009. Investigators allege at least $4.5 billion was stolen from the fund and laundered by Najib's associates. Najib was found guilty in 2020 of seven charges of corruption for illegally receiving $9.4 million from SRC International, a former unit of 1MDB.

Lanka to replace anti-terror law

COLOMBO

SRI Lanka on Tuesday announced that it will soon replace the Prevention of Terrorism Act (PTA) with a new security law, amid international condemnation over Colombo's use of the draconian counter-terrorism law to detain student activists.

"PTA has been there since 1979. The justice minister informed the cabinet that a new National Security Act would be drafted by deleting the undesirable parts of the PTA," Cabinet minister Bandula Gunawardena told reporters.

The development comes a day after the US and the EU expressed concern over the detention of three student activists. "Using laws that don't conform with international human rights standards—like PTA...We encourage the government to uphold the rights of the people to express their views," US Ambassador to Sri Lanka Julie Chung tweeted. "Concerned about reports on the use of the PTA in recent arrests as we refer to information given by the government to the international community about the de-facto moratorium of the use of PTA," EU said. PTI

Sunak wants meaningful India-UK ties

LONDON

BRITAIN'S prime ministerial candidate Rishi Sunak has said he wants to change the UK-India relationship to make it a more two-way exchange that opens up easy access to UK students and companies in India.

Addressing a gathering of British Indian Conservative Party members, Sunak vowed to get the country through the difficult times of inflation and build a better, safer Britain.

During the campaign hustings event hosted by the Conservative Friends of India (CFNI) diaspora organisation, former Chancellor greeted the gathering with a mix of traditional greetings such as 'namaste, salaam, khem cho and kidda' and even broke into Hindi, "aap sab mere parivar ho (you all are my family)".

"We know the UK-India relationship is important. We represent the living bridge between our two countries," he said, in response to a question about bilateral ties from CFNI.

"I want to make sure that it's easy for our students to also travel to India and learn, that it's also easy for our companies and Indian companies to work together because it's not just a one-way relationship, it's a two-way relationship, and that's the type of change I want to bring to that relationship," he said.

On China, the former minister reiterated his stand about the need to be very robust in defending the UK against Beijing's aggressiveness. PTI

B'desh cuts school hours to save power

DHAKA

SCHOOLS in Bangladesh will close an additional day each week and government offices and banks will shorten their work days by an hour to reduce electricity usage amid concerns over rising fuel prices and the impact of the Ukraine war.

The reduced hours take effect from Wednesday. In Bangladesh, most schools are closed on Fridays, but now will also close on Saturdays, Cabinet Secretary Khandker Anwarul Islam said.

He said government offices and banks will cut their work days to seven hours from the previous eight hours, but that private offices will be allowed to set their own schedules.

Supply disruptions caused by the Ukraine war have led to soaring world prices for energy and food.

Bangladesh has been taking measures in recent weeks to ease pressure on its declining foreign currency reserves. Last month, fuel prices were raised by more than 50%. The government says it is exploring options to get cheaper fuel from Russia under a special arrangement.

The decision has drawn criticism, but the government said it is necessary to cut losses amid rising international fuel prices. Small street protests against the higher prices have taken place in recent weeks.

The country has been suffering more frequent power cuts after the government suspended operations of all diesel-run power plants, reducing daily electricity production by 1,000 megawatts.

But authorities have promised to continue supplying power to industrial zones to help support the country's $416 billion economy, which has been growing rapidly over the last decade.

The country's opposition has accused the government of failing to control corruption and eliminate losses in the energy sector. AP

How a loan landed Roys in trouble

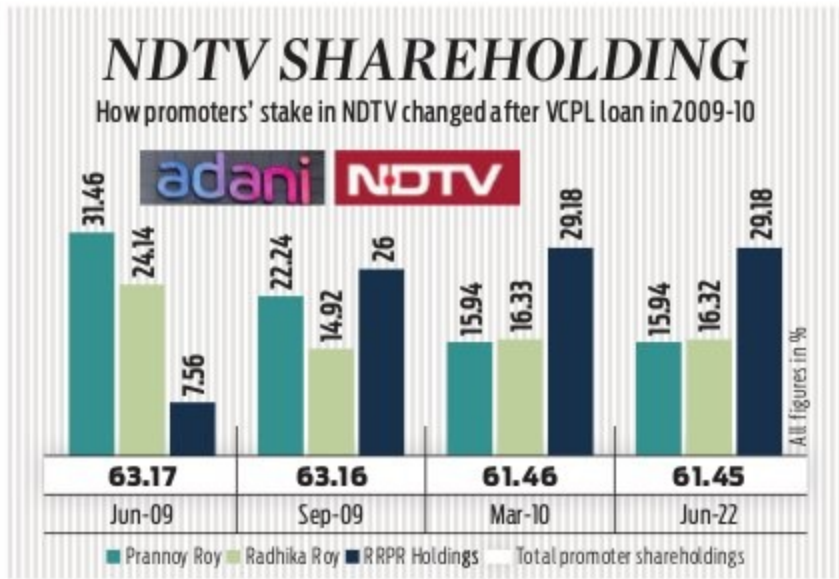

RRPR Holdings took the ₹400 crore loan on behalf of NDTV from VCPL in 2009-10

DIPAK MONDAL @ New Delhi

The ₹403-crore loan taken by NDTV as early as 2009-10 has come back to haunt the Prannoy Roy-owned media company, again.

RRPR Holdings, which was a promoter group entity and then held only 7.56% stake in NDTV, took the loan on behalf of NDTV from Vishvapradhan Commercial Private Limited (VCPL) in two tranches (₹350 crore in July 2009 and another ₹53 crore in January 2010).

As per the loan agreement, RRPR was required to issue warrants to VCPL, which were convertible equity shares aggregating to 99.99% of share capital of RRPR. The loan agreement also required Prannoy Roy and Radhika Roy, who together held 55.5% in NDTV at the end of June 2009, to transfer some of their shares to RRPR Holdings. Due to these terms, RRPR Holdings' stake in NDTV increased to 29.18% by January 2010.

VCPL, which has now been acquired by Adani group, has now exercised the warrants to acquire 99.5% stake in RRPR, allowing Adani group to hold 29.18% in NDTV.

VCPL, which had a turnover of just ₹1 lakh in last two financial years, was long rumoured to be a shell company of Mukesh Ambani's Reliance group. However, who owns VCPL is shrouded in mystery. As per exchange filings, Adani acquired 100% in VCPL from Nextwave Televentures and Eminent Networks. The said loan has proved to be a bane for the promoters of NDTV earlier as well, as they have been subjected to a probe by the Securities and Exchange Board of India (Sebi), which found them in violation of SEBI Act. Sebi found the NDTV promoters guilty of not disclosing the terms of the VCPL loan to investors. The same loan has now become the reason for what looks like a hostile takeover of NDTV by Adani. NDTV in an exchange filing said: "NDTV founders and the company would like to make it clear that this exercise of rights by VCPL was executed without any input from, conversation with, or consent of the NDTV founders, who, like NDTV, have been made aware of this exercise of rights only today." But can Prannoy Roy save his media empire from going into the hands of Adanis, especially since the latter has already announced that it would give an open offer to shareholders to buy another 26%. "Prannoy can try and fight it out. It isn't a lost cause yet," says Shriram Subramanian, founder and MD of proxy advisory firm InGovern Research.

'Adani deeply overleveraged as new biz funded by debt'

ARSHAD KHAN @ New Delhi

ASIA'S richest man Gautam Adani's ports-to-FMCG conglomerate is "deeply overleveraged" as the Group continues to invest heavily in the existing businesses and foray into new ones, predominantly funded with debt, CreditSights said in a report on Tuesday.

Raising concerns over Adani's expansion plans, the Fitch Group unit noted, "In the worst-case scenario, overly ambitious debt-funded growth plans could spiral into a massive debt trap and possibly culminate into a distressed situation or default of one or more group companies. Overall, we remain cautiously watchful of the Group's growing expansion appetite, which is largely debt-funded."

Post this report, the share of Adani listed firms fell as much as 5% on Tuesday. Adani Power fell 4.99%, Adani Wilmar tumand boasts robust credit metrics (gross and net leverage at 2.6x and 2.2x as at end-FY22) and interest cover (7.8x at FY22). On the other hand, Adani has elevated leverage, poor interest cover and cash outflows across entities and is at greater financial risk," CreditSights said.

The Group is India's third-largest conglomerate (after RIL and Tata Group) based on market capitalisation of over $200 bn as of August 18, 2022. It, however, has one of the highest debt levels. Its combined gross debt reached a new high of ₹2.22 lakh crore at the end of FY21-22, up 42% from ₹1.57 lakh crore a year ago. CreditSights said excessive debt and overleveraging by the Group could have a cascading negative effect on the credit quality of the bond issuing entities within the Group and heightens contagion risk in case any entity falls into distress.

SpiceJet looks to raise funds from airlines, external parties

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

LOSS-MAKING SpiceJet is ready to sell its stake to external parties, including other airlines, among others, as it seeks to raise ₹2,000 crore, said Chairman Ajay Singh on Tuesday.

Without divulging specific details, Singh said they would do everything to ensure SpiceJet remains a strong player. The shareholders of SpiceJet have approved fundraising of ₹1,500 to ₹2,000 crore and some amounts have already been raised, added Singh. Making losses for the last four years, SpiceJet has hit many turbulence in recent times. From ongoing legal dispute with the airlines' former promoter to multiple technical snags its aircraft faced in June-July, SpiceJet has been battling one setback after another. However, in the past few weeks it managed to reach a settlement with its aircraft lessors and has received an expansion to sort its issue with Kalanithi Maran, the former promoter.

Singh said they are doing the utmost to work through the stress that it has faced and the strategy is to raise resources.

"We are doing it by way of the government-supported scheme ECLGS (emergency credit line guarantee scheme), getting new aircraft from Boeing and therefore through the SLB (securities lending and borrowing) process, exploring options for fundraise... we are exploring all options," he said.

Singh and his family held a 59.4% stake in SpiceJet in which 44.24% of the promoter stake was pledged to the creditors as on June 30 this year.

New ODI rules to boost ease of doing biz, overseas deal making: Experts

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

IN a significant move, the new overseas direct investment rules have permitted outbound investments, classified as 'round-tripping' under the earlier regime (FDI-ODI structures), without requiring prior RBI approval if the structure involves less than two layers of subsidiaries.

The relaxation is expected to boost overseas deal making by Indian entities, say experts.

"As per the rules, an Indian entity or an Indian resident individual can hold less than 10% equity in an overseas entity, holds investment(s) in India up to two layers of subsidiaries, directly or indirectly," Hemal Mehta, Partner, Deloitte India said. "Holding less than 10% equity in an overseas entity is inter-alia not considered as a 'control' but is classified under 'portfolio investment'. On a separate note, determining an arm's length pricing on issue/transfer of capital of foreign entity may impose some practical challenges considering the obligation is now shifted to AD banks," Mehta added. As per Badri Narayanan, executive partner, Lakshmikumaran & Sridharan Attorneys, the government has been receptive to the feedback from industry and stakeholders on the draft regulations that were released for comments last year and some of the key issues that were flagged have been addressed in the final notified overseas investment rules/regulations.

RBI Governor maintains strong stance against cryptocurrency

UMA KANNAN @ Bengaluru

CRYPTOS are a solution to multiple financial problems, say crypto players, as RBI governor Shaktikanta Das told a news channel that since all the cryptos are denominated in hard currencies, by and large, dollar, it will not work in favour of countries like India. He also said that it may be misused as a tool for money laundering.

Crypto players say the comments from the RBI's governor are not new. "The central bank has always been skeptical over cryptos and sees it only as a potential challenge to currency. However, this is not completely true. Cryptos are not a threat to a nation's financial system nor an alternative to any fiat currency of the country," said Dileep Seiberg, Founder & CEO, MuffinPay, Bill Payment & Utility Crypto.

Many Indian laws are currently silent on digital assets, leaving open room for misinterpretation and misuse. Creating an overarching regulatory framework which protects the regulator's interests while promoting the decade's most promising innovation is the way to go, said Anoush Bhasin, Angel investor and an advisor at KoinX. Last month, Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman said that the RBI has asked the government to frame regulations for cryptocurrencies, considering the destabilising effect of them on the monetary and fiscal stability of a country.

"Cryptocurrencies can help small investors make easy transactions in a shorter span with low fees in a secured manner. It can also hedge against inflation. Additionally, it can help in better portfolio diversification from traditional assets such as stocks or bonds," said Edul Patel, CEO & Co-Founder, Mudrex, a crypto investment platform. Apart from global factors, the Indian crypto industry also started seeing layoffs, crypto winter and the new TDS rule bringing down volumes on crypto exchanges.

When asked about the crypto industry, Rajgopal Menon, vice president, WazirX, said due to the very nature of the industry, it remains one of the safest options for investment.

He said more nurturing and collaborative environment from policymakers and regulators are needed to let the ecosystem grow, while keeping customer interests and safety at the forefront. Currently there are about 35 mn crypto users in India, Menon added. Mohammed Roshan, CEO & co-founder of GoSats, doesn't agree with the financial instability argument. "Bitcoin in particular can strengthen the country's economy. I think the RBI and government need to look at bitcoin as different from crypto."

BOOST FOR K'TAKA

Hitachi Energy opens new unit in Bengaluru

ENS @ Bengaluru

"KARNATAKA is a leading contributor to the country's industrial ambitions, and with partners such as Hitachi Energy, we continue to invest to make the state a global manufacturing hub," said Chief Minister Basavaraj Bommai, after inaugurating a new facility of Hitachi Energy in Doddaballapur, Bengaluru, on Tuesday.

The new facility will offer direct and indirect employment, and nurture an ecosystem of local suppliers across the value chain, the company said. "This new manufacturing unit for power quality solutions reinforces our commitment to facilitate India's energy transition to net-zero," said Claudio Facchin, CEO, Hitachi Energy. The facility doubles the existing capacity to produce advanced capacitor units, banks and power electronic compensators for low, medium and high-voltage systems, that are used in power utilities, industries, renewables and transportation segments, Hitachi Energy said.

First quarter GDP growth likely to be in double digits

MONIKA YADAV @ New Delhi

INDIA'S gross domestic product (GDP) growth rate in the first quarter of FY23 is expected to be in double digits due to low base effect. Analysts estimate 13-15% growth in GDP in the first quarter.

"Growth is expected to be about 15.7% with a huge possibility of an upward bias on account of various indicators showing good progress in the Indian economy," SBI Ecowrap report said. The government will announce the first quarter GDP numbers on August 31.

"Importantly, private final consumption expenditure in real terms that had declined significantly by ₹4.77 lakh crore in Q1FY21 owing to COVID-19 pandemic recovered by 46% in Q1FY22. It remains to be seen how the remaining 54% pent up demand recovered in Q1FY23," SBI report stated. "We believe, it is likely to be more than 54%, indicating a strong recovery in consumer demand, specifically in services which has helped in the likely strong Q1FY23 numbers. This also accounts for 6.8% of the total GDP contribution in Q1FY23," it further added.

Meanwhile, as per ICRA, India's GDP growth in the first quarter of the current fiscal is likely to grow in double digits at 13% due to low base and significant recovery in the contact-intensive sectors following the large vaccination coverage.

The sectoral growth in Q1 FY2023 is likely to be driven by the services sector, followed by the industry, said ICRA. Gross Value Added (GVA) growth in agriculture, forestry and fishing is projected to decline to 1.0% in Q1 FY2023 from 4.1% in Q4 FY2022, owing to heat wave in several parts of the country, which suppressed wheat production, it added.

pany is the fastest growing personal care brand that crossed the Rs 100 crore turnover mark in four years.

Sequoia Capital India, led by Ravishankar GV, is the top investor in the list, followed by Norwest Venture Partners, led by Niren Shah and Tiger Global Management, led by Alex Cook.

Future Retail creditors submits ₹21K cr claims

ENS ECONOMIC BUREAU
@ New Delhi

FINANCIA creditors of Kishore Biyani-owned Future Retail have submitted claims of ₹21,058 crore under the ongoing corporate insolvency resolution process.

As many as 33 banks and financial institutions have submitted these claims with Bank of New York Mellon submitting the largest claim of ₹4,670 crore. Public sector banks -- Bank of Baroda (₹2,236 crore), Union Bank of India (₹2,002 crore) and Central bank of India (₹1,657 crore) were among the other banks which submitted over ₹1,000 crore claims.

Out of ₹21,058 crore, the resolution professional -- Vijaykumar V Iyer -- has verified ₹17,512 crore of the claims.

The operational creditors have also submitted claims of Rs 265 crore while workers dues include ₹9.83 crore.

Bank of India filed an insolvency application against Future Retail after the Mumbai-based retailer defaulted on a payment of ₹856 crore.

The Mumbai bench of the National Company Law Tribunal (NCLT) on 20 June 2022 admitted Bank of India's plea to initiate the corporate insolvency resolution process (CIRP). Promoters of Future Retail unsuccessfully tried to sell the company to Reliance Retail for ₹24,000 crore in 2020.

However, e-commerce giant Amazon, which had a 49% stake in Future Retail's promoter entity Future Coupons, had moved the international arbitration court against the Future Retail's merger deal with Reliance deal citing breach of contract. After its failed attempt to raise money by selling Future Retail, the promoters of the company started defaulting on payments due to banks.

This forced the banks to move NCLT to initiate insolvency proceedings against Future Retail. Amazon had filed an intervention application to stop the insolvency proceeding being admitted by the NCLT.

However, NCLT dismissed Amazon's plea and allowed initiation of insolvency proceedings against Future Retail.

SINGAPORE

TIGHTENING RISKS LOOM

Singapore's key consumer price gauge in July rose again at its fastest pace in more than 13 years, official data showed on Tuesday, mounting pressure on the central bank to consider another policy tightening move later this year. The pick-up in inflation was mainly driven by stronger increases in the prices of food, electricity and gas, the Monetary Authority of Singapore (MAS) and the Ministry of Trade and Industry said in a statement. The core inflation rate -- the central bank's favoured price measure -- rose to 4.8% in July on a year-on-year basis. Headline inflation rose to 7%, matching economists' forecast. The core and headline inflation rates were 4.4% and 6.7% respectively in June. Following July's inflation data, three economists said they expect MAS to tighten monetary policy in their scheduled statement in October, but added the likelihood of another off-cycle tightening before then is low. Singapore's central bank has tightened its monetary policy three times this year, twice in surprise moves in January and July.

SOUTH KOREA

BANK OF KOREA TO RAISE RATES ON THURSDAY

South Korea's central bank will raise its key interest rate again on Thursday to fight inflation, according to a Reuters poll of economists, but they are divided on how high borrowing costs will be by the year-end. Inflation in South Korea accelerated to an almost 24-year high in July of 6.3% and was expected to continue to rise for a few more months, leaving the Bank of Korea (BOK) with little choice but to remain aggressive. All but one of the 36 economists polled Aug. 16-22 forecast the Bank of Korea will raise its policy rate by 25 basis points to 2.50% at its Aug. 25 meeting. One expected a 50 basis point hike. If the majority view prevails, it would take rates to twice where it was before the pandemic. "With headline inflation accelerating in July and core inflation rising, containing price pressures will remain a top priority, with rate hikes on the cards," noted Krystal Tan, economist at ANZ. "We maintain that the BOK's rate hiking cycle will end in 2022." Although inflation was expected to peak soon, and with stronger growth headwinds, economists were divided on where rates would be by the year-end.

JAPAN

AUG FACTORY ACTIVITY SLOWEST IN 19 MONTHS

Japan's factory activity growth slowed to a 19-month low in August as output and new order declines deepened, amid growing pressure from persistent rises in raw material and energy costs and weakening global demand. Activity in the services sector contracted for the first time in five months, as a fall in new business raised worries about lacklustre demand at home. The au Jibun Bank Flash Japan Manufacturing Purchasing Managers' Index (PMI) fell to a seasonally adjusted 51.0 in August from a 52.1 final in July, marking the slowest expansion since January last year. The 50-mark separates contraction from expansion. The headline figure was pulled down in the second consecutive month of declines in output and overall new orders. New orders shrank at the fastest rate in nearly two years. Optimism about conditions for the year ahead underpinned the slightly positive headline figure, the survey showed. Producers only became slightly less optimistic about conditions ahead compared to the previous month.

Crude output 5.6% lower than target in July

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
@ New Delhi

INDIA'S crude oil production in July 2022 at 2,453.19 thousand metric tonnes (TMT) is 5.57% lower than target set for the month and 3.76% lower than the production of July 2021.

As per the petroleum ministry data, cumulative crude oil production during April-July 2022 was 9,912.42 TMT, which is 2.17% lower than the target set for the period and 0.50% lower than production during corresponding period of last year.

ONGC produced 1,636.56 TMT, which is 3.36% lower than the target of the month and 1.70% lower when compared with production of July 2021.

The reason for the company's lower output is natural decline in production from Gandhar in Ankleshwar, ceasing of high potential wells in Geleki field in Assam, closure of wells due to DAB issues and others.

The cumulative crude oil production by ONGC during April-July was 6,606.19 TMT, 1.12% lower than the target.

Railways wrestlers barred from trials, WFI differs

FIROZ MIRZA @ Chennai

INDIAN Railways' wrestlers were allegedly not allowed to participate in the trials held in Rohtak on Tuesday to select the state teams for the U-23 nationals. More than 10 wrestlers from men's freestyle and Greco-Roman style wanted to appear in the trials and represent Haryana as Railways do not field teams in the events. The three-day U-15 & U-20 Federation Cup is starting on Wednesday while the U-23 nationals is scheduled in Kochi next month.

Those allegedly denied participation also include international medallists. Sajan Bhanwal, who last month won 82kg bronze at the Zouhaier Sghaier Tournament Ranking Series, in Tunisia, is one among them. "We were told that we can compete only if Railways field their team in the event," said Sajan. The Haryana wrestler represented his state in the 2021 U-23 nationals and won gold Parveen Malik was another wrestler who was forced to miss the trials. "I wanted to compete in the 74kg freestyle trials but was not allowed," he said.

Kripa Shankar Patel, former India international and Railways coach, said he apprised the host association, Haryana, and Wrestling Federation of India (WFI) of the issue but it could not be resolved. "I spoke to the Haryana Wrestling Association secretary Rakesh Singh. I have also spoken to the WFI assistant secretary Vinod Tomar and he asserted that the wrestlers cannot be denied a chance to compete in the trials but the ground reality was completely different as more than 10 wrestlers from Railways were not allowed to compete," said Patel.

The WFI admitted that it has decided not to allow Railways' wrestlers to compete in the Federation Cup. "In the past, a few Railways wrestlers were found to be involved in corrupt practices. While representing their states, they had conceded the bouts against their Railways counterparts so we decided not to allow teams from Services and Railways to take part in the Federation Cup," Tomar said. Speaking on the U-23 Kochi nationals, he said, "The Railways' wrestlers can represent their respective states by qualifying in the selection trials and we have instructed all the member units to allow them to take part in the trials."

Chauhan removed but chess mess continues

INDRANEEL DAS @ Chennai

THE All India Chess Federation (AICF) secretary Bharat Singh Chauhan had to vacate his post after the Delhi High Court on Monday said he cannot continue. He was ineligible to hold the post after a June 2 order that termed his election invalid on the ground of flouting sports code. However, because of the Chess Olympiad, Supreme Court had allowed him to continue until August 15.

On Tuesday, the AICF held an urgent virtual general body meeting and endorsed the appointment of Vipnesh Bhargava, an international arbiter, as the interim secretary. "As per court order, Bharat Singh Chauhan had to vacate his post and the AICF president (Sanjay Kapoor) had named him the secretary on Monday and as per the constitution, Bhargava's name needed to be endorsed by the general body," said Naresh Sharma, the treasurer of AICF. "We held an urgent GB meeting today and vetted the interim arrangement."

However, the matter gets complicated with Ravindra Dongre of Maharashtra claiming to be the legitimate person to hold the post of secretary after Chauhan had vacated the post. "I should be the secretary after Chauhan was asked to go," he told this newspaper. "I have already written to the president and other members that Chauhan's tenure had ended on August 15 and I assumed charge from August 16." According to a letter by Dongre sent to members, he said the appointment of any other person would be in violation of the court order and contempt. He also argues in the letter that since he has already assumed charge as secretary, the GB meeting was not legal. He said they have followed sports code. The Delhi High Court had said on June 2 that Chauhan had violated the sports code and could not continue.

The AICF treasurer, however, said that Dongre cannot be a secretary as he is not part of any state. "So his letters does not have any locus standi," he said.

AIFF asks FIFA to lift suspension after SC order

ENS @ Chennai

WITH the Committee of Administrators (CoA) out of the picture following a Supreme Court order, the All India Football Federation (AIFF) on Tuesday wrote to the world body (FIFA), asking for it to reconsider the suspension placed on it on August 15. In a letter addressed to Fatma Samoura, AIFF's acting secretary Sunando Dar apprised her of the developments in the Supreme Court. "It is with immense pleasure that we inform you that the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India (the SC) took up our matter and vide order dated 22.05.2022 was pleased to pass directions regarding the full repeal of the CoA mandate and consequently the AIFF having full charge of the AIFF's daily affairs," Dar wrote in the letter shared by the AIFF. On August 15, the FIFA had suspended the AIFF for third party interference and not following its own constitution. The AIFF had reached out to the Supreme Court asking to strike down an earlier court order that put the CoA in-charge of the day-to-day functioning of the football unit.

Vijay says Chennai has outside chance in 2024

SWAROOP SWAMINATHAN @ Chennai

IF Vijay Amritraj has his way, the city could be in line to host a WTA 500 event after the 2024 edition of the Australian Open. It's still very early days in the talking process but the Tamil Nadu Tennis Association (TNTA) president is of the opinion that there is an 'outside chance' to host it.

"Outside chance of a potential WTA 500 event in February 2023," he said in an interaction with journalists on Tuesday. While there are specific pre-requisites before hosting a 500-level event, Amritraj said that the facilities on offer at SDAT meets it. "I have told them what we have and they say 'we can do it.'" If Chennai is to be successful in hosting a WTA 500 event, it will be the biggest tennis event to be held in the country in terms of prize money as well as prestige.

While officially announcing the player field for India's first WTA 250 meet — the SDAT stadium will host it from September 10 to 18 — Amritraj also mentioned that if the 500 event is to take place, he wouldn't mind missing out on a 250 event next year. "We would lose 2023. I don't want to run one in September/October (2023) if I can get one for February 2024 and there is an outside chance for that to be a WTA 500 event," he said.

Bouchard given wild card

Speaking on the player field for the upcoming event, Amritraj revealed that 2014 Wimbledon finalist, Eugenie Bouchard, has been handed a wild card. The 28-year-old does not have a singles ranking because of a serious shoulder injury. Before taking part in a low-level meet in Vancouver last week, she hadn't played since March 2021. Now back on the comeback trail, she will feature in the qualifiers of the US Open. The second of the four wild cards have been given to Ankita Raina, India's No 1. Two more wild cards could be handed to players ranked inside the top-20 if they wish to take part.

One of Amritraj's main goals since was to bring a WTA meet to the city. Now that he has succeeded in doing it, the next goal is restoring the ATP 250 meet. With the state government pushing aggressively for it as well, he is hopeful of bringing it back but it isn't as simple as rubbing a magic lamp. "The windows are small and the calendars are tight," he said when asked about the ATP. "We are working on it." He expressed hope that TNTA could end up doing both the events in the same year. If they do that, he will have satisfied his election mandate in 2019 of getting global tennis back in Chennai.

'IF MAAERI WAS MADE TODAY, IT WOULDN'T HAVE WORKED'

Famed singer Palash Sen, who has recently collaborated with city-based dancer-actor Rukmini Vijayakumar for a new song Khwaamkhaa, gets candid with CE about the indie music scene, and what makes their '98 album, Dhoom, timeless

MONIKA MONALISA

If you are a '90s kid in India – when indie music was at its peak – the tune of the song Dhoom Pichak Dhoom by Euphoria will be etched in your memory. The team is now out with the new music video Khwaamkhaa from the album, Sale.

Palash Sen, the lead vocalist of the band says the response from music enthusiasts, 'Euphorians' and music lovers has been phenomenal. "But at the same time, it is a number game. We still don't have those numbers. We are independent artists who are not backed by any music labels. In that perspective, the kind response and respect we have got because of Khwaamkhaa is heartening," says Sen.

Sen, who has sung some unforgettable tunes, finds that the music industry has changed dramatically since the time he started. "There is too much clutter. Firstly, this much music didn't release at that time, and most of the music that came out had to be really, really good for it to reach people. There was nothing like a digital presence and Bollywood was not making that much music.

In the last 10 years, music has been destroyed by Bollywood," says Sen, adding that because of digital platforms like YouTube coming in, making music has become very easy. "It has become much easier than what it was in the '90s or early 2000s. Now, you can reach your audience through marketing strategies and with money. It is very difficult to get an organic reach," he sighs.

However, he believes there is still talent and music but because of monetisation, it has become very difficult. "If Euphoria had come up now instead of '98, it would have been way more difficult for us to make our mark. If I had made Maaeri today, it probably would not have worked," says Sen.

Euphoria's first album Dhoom came out in the year 1998, which is still fresh in people's memory. "We have hardly made money out of the music we have made. We have signed wrong contracts and we didn't care about money back then. Whether it was Lucky (Ali) bhai's music or KK's music, it came from a place of honesty," says Sen, who was last in Bengaluru for a gig in 2020 before the pandemic hit.

A still from Khwaamkhaa

'I never imagined I would do a music video with Palash'

MONIKA MONALISA

If Rukmini Vijayakumar is in the frame, it is hard to focus on anything else. Recently featured in Palash Sen and his band Euphoria's new song Khwaamkhaa, Vijayakumar lights up every frame she is in. And her hair flip with her perfectly-permed mane can make many hearts melt.

Having followed the band Euphoria since she was in school, Vijayakumar had never imagined being featured in one of their songs. "Someone from the band called me and asked if I wanted to be a part of it. I heard the song and then Palash Sen explained the concept to me. I remember listening to their music as a kid during my school days. I never thought I would do a music video with them," says Vijayakumar.

The song captures the beauty and freshness of the White Town in Pudukcherry, and Vijayakumar is seen in eight different characters, playing Sen's muse. And of course, the song features her signature Bharatanatyam movements. The entire shoot took around two days to finish. "I like that it has an acoustic feel to it since I don't really like electronic stuff," says Vijayakumar, adding that one of her favourite songs from the band is Maaeri. Actors like Vidya Balan and Rimmi Sen have previously been part of Euphoria's albums.

Vijayakumar was last seen in the Telugu period romantic musical drama Sita Ramam, starring Dulquer Salmaan, Mrunal Thakur and Rashmika Mandanna.

FIT BIT

ASTHMA MUDRA (ASTHMA HAND GESTURE)

This gesture, when displayed along with pranayama or a meditative practice, is thought to assist yogis in relieving mild asthma attacks or, when practised routinely, aids in preventing them. It is believed to relax muscles that line the respiratory tract, offering relief to those who experience asthma or breathing difficulties.

STEPS

- Sit down in a meditative pose like, Padmasana, Siddhasana, Swastikasana, Vajrasana, etc. and place the hands on the knees/thighs facing upwards.
- Your back should be straight and chest and head pulled up high.
- Close your eyes and take some deep breaths with the awareness of the breathing process.
- Now, bend the middle fingers of both hands and bring them to the root of the fingers, so that the nails of both fingers touch each other. Let both the middle fingers press each other.
- The rest of the fingers should be straight and the palms should not stick together.
- Removing all thoughts from the mind, focus only on Om. Breathe normally.

BENEFITS

- Considered to aid in increasing body temperature.
- Protects the respiratory system from cold, cough, cold and stiffness.
- Activates the points in the palms and fingers that are connected to the lungs and chest.
- All mudras are very effective when you do the mudras between 4 am and 6 am, which can give you a silent and calm environment.
- Practise it daily in winter or when the weather changes, for 30 minutes.
- You can opt to practise in the morning and evening for 10-12 minutes, on an empty stomach or after eating food. But for better results, it should be practised on an empty stomach.
- For best results, practise regularly for two months.

LIMITATIONS

If you practise this, follow a strict diet plan. Consume only fresh satvik food including ginger, clove, turmeric to strengthen immunity.

Avoid meat, eggs, wheat, milk, dairy products, chilled, sour, or preservative foods and antibiotics in diet.

Stop smoking. Stay away from harsh environmental conditions or food habits that irritate the lungs or windpipe.

Don't breathe via mouth, especially during winters.

FINDING INNER LIGHT IN BETWEEN LINES

Author Sumaa Tekur speaks to CE about her debut book and the many benefits of starting one's spiritual journey

TUNIR BISWAS

If you're looking to kick-start your spiritual awakening, author and spiritual consultant Sumaa Tekur's debut book The Inner Light: A Beginner's Guide to Spirituality and Finding Peace, might be for you. A former journalist, Tekur quit her position as a lead editor at an MNC to take up the spiritual path in 2017. Since then, she has opened her own spiritual consultancy and has now debuted as an author.

Tekur believes the primary message of her book is that spirituality can be approached from a pragmatic standpoint and can easily be integrated into daily life. "The idea behind the book was to demystify the perceptions of spirituality. Some preconceived notions might make us think the path to spirituality can only be attained through complete and blind devotion to a guru. But this is simply not the case," says Tekur.

Tekur developed an interest in her spiritual journey during her formative years. The idea to write a book on it came after she met various individuals through her spiritual consultancy, Golden Swan Healing, which she started in 2017. "Through my consultancy, I met various types of people who were at different stages of their spiritual journey. Some were new to the process, but then there were others who had gone as far as joining cults. These experiences made me realise that there is a need for a neutral voice in the market. One that is not affiliated to any spiritual organisation," says Tekur.

While the path to a spiritual life might seem daunting at first, Tekur believes people can start their journey through simple steps. "I can give you three tips to start your spiritual journey. The first is to maintain consistency. Secondly, don't compare your journey with anyone else's. Your exploration will be unique to others. And finally, stay practical. We live in a material world where we have to survive. So, maintaining a balance between our material and spiritual life is a must," shares Tekur.

Aside from meditation and self-exploration, Tekur believes the process of writing can be hugely spiritual. "Writing can be extremely meditative, especially reflective writing. If you're writing down your thoughts, you're forced to process your feelings and that can be a very spiritual exercise. The yogic practice also encourages us to write as it helps you stay in touch with your emotions," says Tekur, who also teaches yoga.

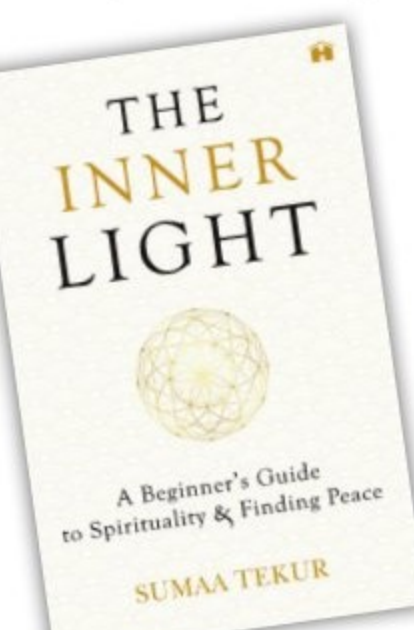

Getting into spirituality can be helpful in the current internet-savvy world. Since the advent of social media, one might feel like they could never catch a break. Spirituality can help slow things down and allow us to take a breather. "The key thing is that social media is not a villain. If we're aware of the time we spend on it and take primary responsibility for our lives, things will soon look better. After that, we can also reach out for professional help if needed," adds Tekur.

Tekur feels she is still in the process of healing with her spiritual journey and believes it is an eternal process that doesn't have an end goal. "The more I delved into spirituality, the more I started observing the world around me and my reactions to it. Spirituality to me is self-exploration, and there is always more to know. Dipping into spirituality can make your life more meaningful and wholesome. Carry along your material and spiritual life together, and the journey feels worth it," concludes Tekur.

How to make a movie that offends nobody

HRIDAY RANJAN
 Urban Bourbon
 (Writer, comedian)

HERE are some films that stay within you, and grow like a baby inside you. Forrest Gump is that movie for me. Kids of today might not be aware of what a monumental year 1994 was for Hollywood. Most of our modern iconic films - Pulp Fiction, Shawshank Redemption, The Mask - all released in the same year. But unlike the other films, Forrest Gump requires no great knowledge of screenwriting or filmmaking to appreciate. It was the story of a simple, bumbling man who unwittingly alters the course of America's history through his good nature and simplicity.

I watched it many years later, on DVD. I had no knowledge of its iconic status, and simply selected it among the many films on the pirated disc. I watched the film all through the night, and had tears in my eyes when it concluded. Since then, Forrest Gump has been my go-to film when my mood needs upliftment. It's a film I have revisited countless times, and can recite the dialogues verbatim.

It was a no-brainer then, that when Aamir Khan decided to remake the film, I would go and watch it. With our nation's colourful history, it could have been an ideal setting for a remake. Despite the calls to boycott the film, I did the very anti-national act of buying tickets to the movie. I was fully prepared to hate the movie, but to my surprise, I found myself tearing up in places. While Aamir Khan's wide-eyed acting was too reminiscent of PK and 3 Idiots to be taken seriously, the film wasn't half as bad as people claimed it was.

However, even a non-passionate fan of Forrest Gump would notice a few things about the remake. For one, Laal Singh Chaddha is a mere spectator to the events around him. Unlike the original, where Forrest is a catalyst to the major incidents in his country's history. Also, no recent events were included in the film so as to avoid controversy or comment on the government in power. And a five-minute disclaimer in the beginning of the film that could have easily been used to establish a character introduction.

It's not hard to sympathise with the makers of the film. They played safe because the film was already drowned in the 'boycott' fiasco. I am not a huge fan of boycotts (My favourite Boycott is Sir Geoffrey Boycott!), and find it absurd that we are all up in arms against movies. We went from boycotting British goods to boycotting movies because an actor said something years ago. As the Indian middle class got more and more political, movies have become the scapegoat for outrage. Ironically, we hardly ever make hard hitting political movies. Most of our movies are mindless comedies, or epic revenge sagas. But scroll through your family WhatsApp group, and you'll find an uncle coming up with a new reason to outrage everyday.

Which is why Laal Singh Chaddha chose to play safe. And a film without risks is a soap opera. They couldn't offend any religion, or state, its people, and their culture. Language is a touchy topic too, and buses have been burnt in recent times over signboards. Culture is another touchy topic. The country cannot be shown in a bad light, and neither can the armed forces be criticised in any way. Which leaves us with the question - how does one make a movie without offending anybody?

And then, I found my answer: The only way to make a movie without offending anybody - is to not make a movie in the first place!

Akshith Shashikumar and Aditi Prabhudeva

Akshith Shashikumar, Aditi Prabhudeva team up for Chaos

Doctor-turned-director Venkatesh Prasad's first venture is billed to be a suspense action thriller set on a medical campus

CE FEATURES

G Venkatesh Prasad, a doctor by profession, who has always been passionate about filmmaking, makes a career shift and forays into film direction. After taking up a filmmaking course, Venkatesh Prasad is set to make his directorial debut with Chaos. The film stars Akshith Shashikumar and Aditi Prabhudeva playing the lead.

After completing the shooting, Venkatesh Prasad is now busy with the post-production work. Revealing details about his debut project, Venkatesh Prasad says that Chaos will feature Akshith and Aditi Prabhudeva as medical students. "This is a suspense action thriller, and the story happens in and around a medical campus. The chain of events surrounding the hero and the rest of the cast is extremely chaotic, and in fact, except one character, everyone else is always in a chaotic state," says the director.

Venkatesh Prasad has managed to rope in Akshith's father and noted actor Shashikumar in a key role. "This is the first film where the father-son duo will be sharing screen space," says the director.

Apart from the leads, Chaos stars Siddu Moolimani, RK Chandan (Mangalayam Tantanana-fame), Shivanand Sindgi (Comedy Khiladigalu), Aradhana Bhat (Majaa Talkies), Mimicry Gopi, and Nagendra Urs in prominent roles.

Backed by Parul Agarwal, the makers plan to release Chaos in October.

The film, made under KRG Studios banner, will be a contemporary gangster drama set in North Karnataka

Dhananjay

DHANANJAY TO HEADLINE ROHIT PADAKI'S UTTARAKANDA

A SHARADHAA

D HANANJAY is set to headline Rohit Padaki's Uttarakanda, produced by KRG Studios. The makers, who had revealed the title earlier, have now announced the actor coming on board, along with a poster.

Dhananjay had earlier teamed up with Rohit and the production house for Ratnan Prapancha, which was a direct OTT release. This will be his second collaboration with the director and his third film with producers Karthik Gowda and Yogi G Raj after Hoysala.

"To the actor who takes birth every time he portrays a character on screen, Happy Birthday," mentioned director Rohit as he shared the poster on social media. The poster features a bloodied Dhananjay in a menacing look, wearing shades. He is seen holding a cigar and a beedi that alludes to his rags-to-riches quest in the film. The director shared that Uttarakanda will be an unusual mass entertainer and in complete contrast with his previous two projects.

Talking about the content, Rohit says that Uttarakanda will be a contemporary gangster drama, and the story explores the life of people in North Karnataka. The makers are planning to rope in big names from Sandalwood in the film. There have been rumors of Shivarajkumar playing a role, but the director remained tight-lipped about the same.

Charan Raj and J Swamy are onboard the film as the composer and cinematographer, respectively. The makers plan to begin shooting in January 2023 after Dhananjay completes shooting for Hoysala.

Dhananjay also has Monsoon Raaga and Once Upon a Time in Jamaligudda in different stages of production.

MUSIC RIGHTS OF SURI-ABISHEK'S BAD MANNERS SOLD FOR A GOOD PRICE

CE FEATURES

T seems like director Suri's Bad Manners, starring Abishek Ambareesh, is hitting the right chord before its release. The music rights of the film have been bagged by Aanand Audio for a whopping Rs 1 crore.

Bad Manners has Charan Raj scoring the music, and this project will mark his third collaboration with the director.

Billed as an action entertainer, Bad Manners features Abishek in the role of a cop. Backed by Sudhir KM, the makers are almost through with the shooting and are simultaneously working on the post-production. "We have two songs and some patchwork left, which will be done in a 15-day schedule. We are planning to complete filming in September," says producer Sudhir.

The film, which also stars Rachita Ram and Priyanka Kumar, has Shekar S handling the cinematography.

The action commercial entertainer is in the last leg of filming

'BECOMING ELIZABETH IS A MODERN PERIOD PIECE'

RAM VENKAT SRIKAR

G ERMAN actor Alicia von Rittberg had two major challenges when she had to become Elizabeth I of England for, well, Becoming Elizabeth. If perfecting the English accent despite being a German was one, she also had to indirectly compete with many iconic actors (Cate Blanchett, Helen Mirren, Judi Dench and Flora Robson). "Growing up, I watched films about Elizabeth I and started watching more after I signed on to play the role. Reading allows you to imagine, sure, but seeing people move, act, and dance bolsters understanding the character and diving into the world. 500 years ago, there were no recordings and naturally, I had to opt for films to get an idea," Alicia says over a Zoom conversation. Opening about what she found fascinating about a character that has seen multiple iterations in film and TV, Alicia adds, "She was wise beyond her years and just otherworldly. To be a queen at that time, unmarried, and to be respected by people, not feared. I couldn't imagine how she became that person. And I am sure it must have been crazier back in the day than it is today. She was just incredible."

As the title fittingly suggests, it is this study about the making of this personality that intrigued Alicia the most about Becoming Elizabeth. "She is an iconic queen and we just don't know how she grew up. Of course, we know about her father and his politics, but a lot had transpired before that. What made her the person she went on to become? Why did she proclaim herself the Virgin Queen? What informed her policy-making and decisions? The answers to all these questions exist in her childhood, which we know very little about. It is an incredible period piece but still feels modern because you don't get blinded by the politics. We are encouraged to see through the human being, and not just what we know of her from the books."

Alicia vividly remembers the first day of filming. The actor underwent a workshop, which she describes as "princess school" where she learned chores, riding the horse, calligraphy, playing musical instruments, and of course, getting the accent right. "We shot a scene in her study on the first day. Naturally, I was nervous because I was working on the accent and they told me to play the virginals (piano) and I wondered why it had to be on the first day." Alicia laughs as she recalls the painstaking first day of the shoot. It didn't get any easier. "I had to recite lines in Greek. Thankfully, I took Ancient Greek lessons in school and never thought it would come in handy while acting. And I had to cry in the scene. If this didn't suffice, I had to perform calligraphy too. All of this was on the first day. It was nuts."

Justin Chadwick, the director of the first four episodes of the show, and Adolpho Veloso refrained from employing artificial lighting on the sets to create a realistic visual tone to authentically represent the time period. Speaking about how the shooting environment influenced her acting process, Alicia shares, "The filmmaker and the DoP used only natural light sources like candles and windows, permitting them to pan the camera 360 degrees without worrying about lighting in the frame. For instance, if I am in the frame and if they notice something interesting in the scene like, say, the reaction of a co-actor, they could immediately pan the camera onto them. Also, if I felt like running to the other side of the room all of a sudden while filming, I was allowed to follow my instinct. The freedom it gives you is incredible." This procedure also meant extra work for the actors. "There were days when we shot for twelve hours without a break. It was not an environment where an actor who wasn't in the frame could relax. You are always in the scene, and if the cinematographer felt so, right in the centre of it all. The set was 100 per cent alive always," she concludes.
